CTGR TERO seeking construction workers, Indian-owned Businesses

The Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) is growing a list of Tribal member construction workers who are interested in obtaining job assignments on construction projects. In addition, TERO maintains a list of Tribal and Indian businesses (IOBs). IOBs are certified by TERO to become eligible to participate in contracting opportunities.

TERO preference requirements apply to all construction projects on the reservation and a need for workers and contractors experienced in the building trades will create opportunities for employment and economic benefit.

Also, construction workers are needed for heavy highway construction on projects throughout the region. The Grand Ronde Tribe and Oregon Department of Transportation negotiated an agreement that provides hiring preference to Indians who are dispatched to projects through TERO.

Those with experience in the construction trades will have immediate opportunities for employment. In addition, those seeking to begin careers in the construction trades may be eligible for training opportunities available including on-the job training and apprenticeship assignments.

Applications and current training events are available at www.grandronde.org/tero. TERO is located at 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, OR 97347 (located on the second floor in the Adult Education Building). For more information, call 503-879-2188. ■

Lewis to speak at 'Evening With Wisdom' dinner

Tribal Historian David Lewis will be one of the featured speakers at "An Evening With Wisdom," a fundraising dinner for Native American non-profit Wisdom of the Elders, at 6:30 p.m. Friday, June 20, at the Melody Ballroom, 614 S.E. Alder St., Portland.

Lewis, who also is the current chair of the Oregon Heritage Commission, will speak about the Chachalu Tribal Museum and Cultural Center, which will provide a forum to assist with the "transition of knowledge" as Tribal Elders pass on their culture to younger members of the Tribe.

Tickets to the dinner are $50 and available at www.brownpapertickets.com.

Portland-based Wisdom of the Elders works to preserve Native culture and livelihood through an array of projects, from multimedia oral histories and storytelling to climate change media and programs for youth.

For more information about the dinner, contact Carma Corcoran at corcorancarma@gmail.com or by calling 503-575-6328.
