

EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Important notice to full-time students

All full-time students must submit verification that they have applied to a scholarship outside the Tribe before funding will be released for the term/semester. Verification can include a scholarship award or denial letter, e-mail verification that an application was submitted, a copy of the application or the financial aid award letter that lists an outside scholarship. Please contact Education at 1-800-422-0232, ext. 2275, if you have any questions. ■

CTGR Higher Education Program deadlines set

There are now only two Higher Education programs depending on whether you are full-time or part-time. The deadline for the Full-Time College program is at least 30 days before the start of classes. The deadline for the Part-Time College program is at least 10 days before the start of class.

Visit the Tribal website for more program information and an application. www.grandronde.org/departments/education/higher-education/ ■

Looking for scholarships?

There are numerous scholarship opportunities offered for students to apply to each year. The majority of scholarships for fall term/semester are due between January and April of each year. The Tribal Higher Education programs are here to assist you in your application process. If you use a scholarship search site, be sure to read the privacy policy to ensure you are using a site that will not sell your contact information. A recommended search site to use is www.kaarme.com.

Oregon University System admissions and scholarship deadlines

The OUS schools have their own priority deadline for admissions. This is also their university scholarship deadline. Don't miss your opportunity to attend your top school choice and a chance to receive a scholarship.

Reminder: Donated items must be clean and in good condition.

Inter-Library loan services: The Tribal Library partners with Oregon State Library to offer "library to library" inter-library loan services. By completing the inter-library loan form, library patrons may request items from the Oregon State Library collection. Items will be couriered to and from the Tribal Library. OSL lending policies apply for return of items.

Book review: "Delirium" by Lauren Oliver

Lauren Oliver was raised in Westchester, N.Y. Her parents are both literature professors so Lauren has been making up stories for as long as she can remember.

Oliver attended the University of Chicago for literature and philosophy and then New York University's MFA program for creative writing. She worked at Penguin Books for a few years before leaving in 2009 to begin writing full-time.

"Delirium" is the first of a book series. It is about how the delirium (love) begins to infect Lena Haloway. In Lena's society, love is seen as a disease. Everyone is forced to get a "cure" for this disease when they turn 18 and Lena is only a few months away from receiving her cure when she meets Alex. Lena doesn't know that Alex is a member of the "Wilds," a society that lives outside of the regulations and fences that Lena grew up knowing.

Lena becomes torn between all the rules she knows about that will keep her safe and how she feels about Alex. Unfortunately, with her birthday looming, Lena may not get to figure those feelings out.

I would recommend this book because it makes you think about what you would do if you lived in a society in which having a choice is not the norm. The story makes you wonder if someday we may live in a society like this. The story keeps the reader involved and makes you want to keep reading and not put the book down.

I'm looking forward to reading the second book to find out if Lena gets the "cure" or if she goes against the rules she grew up with and ends up finding her true path is with Alex and the Wilds.
