OREGON STATE HOSPITAL

Museum of Mental Health

Bearing Witness. Giving Voice.

DO YOU HAVE A STORY TO SHARE?

If so, we are collecting personal stories for the Oregon State Hospital Museum's new initiative, designed to collect and preserve the stories of those who have been connected to the Oregon State Hospital or have narratives about mental illness. The project will enhance understanding of mental illnesses and treatment efforts, strengthen connections between people, and create an archive of personal stories for the benefit of future generations.

Please consider becoming involved! Contact Mickey Stellavato at stories@oshmuseum.org or call 541.510.7792 for more information.

Your story is important.
