Blankets for kids

Holding blankets in front of a Grand Ronde police car are, from left, Grand Ronde Police Chief Al LaChance, Lucie Lindberg of the Willamina Emmanuel Lutheran Church of America, Janice Hoglan, representing Women of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, and Sgt. Jake McKnight. The women’s group makes and donates blankets to law enforcement and related agencies. Police and social service workers, in turn, give the blankets as a comfort to children who have been removed from their homes. The blankets were presented at Grand Ronde Police headquarters on Tuesday, Feb. 10.

Fellowship seeks Native artist applicants

American Indian, Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian artists have until April 6 to apply for the 2015 Native Arts and Cultures Foundation Artist Fellowship.

The awards include support ranging up to $20,000 per artist and are made in six disciplines: performing arts, filmmaking, literature, music, traditional arts and visual arts.

To apply, artists who are members of federally and state-recognized Tribes and Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian communities can review criteria and complete an application at <http://your.culturegrants.org> before the 5 p.m. Monday, April 6, deadline.

For questions and technical support, contact Program Officer Andre Bouchard at andre@nativeartsandcultures.org or 360-314-2421. ■
