Do you have a business idea, but don't know where to get started?

Rural Business Springboard

If you live in Multnomah County, have a business idea and need some help getting set up, we've got you covered. MRIT presents the Rural Business Springboard, an intensive 11-week series that will:

- help you examine the feasibility of your business concept,
- assess your personal readiness,
- identify the steps you need to take and
- provide you access to the people and information you need to successfully launch the business.

The 11-week series of presentations is offered March 2 through April 17. A fee of $100 is required for the series. The fee includes a business plan workshop, a business plan competition, and a business plan presentation. The fee also includes a business plan competition prize of $1,000.

Information will be provided to help you understand the business process and the importance of having a business plan. The business plan is a document that describes the business and the steps you need to take to start the business. It is a document that describes the business and the steps you need to take to start the business.

For more information, contact the Rural Business Springboard at 503-884-7314.
