Pattie Mercier, Tribal risk manager, participates in a Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde workplace violence/active shooter tabletop exercise in the Tribal Community Center on Wednesday, March 18. The group, which included representatives from Grand Ronde Tribal Police, the Grand Ronde Health & Wellness Center, Advanced Security, Yamhill County Sheriff’s Office, Yamhill County and the Oregon Office of Emergency Management, Oregon State Police, Willamette Valley Medical Center, Salem Health, American Red Cross and Tribal employees, was given a workplace active shooter scenario and then they discussed current security plans that are in place and how well they would work in such a situation.

Royalty seeking past members for Chachalu museum display

Previous Grand Ronde Royalty queens and princesses are being sought as the current Royalty Court is trying to compile a picture and biography collection of current and past Royalty for the Chachalu Museum & Cultural Center, 8720 Grand Ronde Road.

“It would be great to have any past pictures and dates that you were on Royalty Court, as well as a short bio of who you are,” said Royalty Coordinator Jackie Manyhides.

Contact Manyhides at 406-450-2917 or through e-mail at jackiemanyhides@gmail.com. Letters can be sent to P.O. Box 419, Grand Ronde, OR, 97347. ■

Help wanted

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde’s 477 Employment and Training Program and Land and Culture Department have resources that can be utilized along with community members who have a passion for gardening or want to learn the art of agriculture.

If you are a Grand Ronde Tribal or community member and want to be a part of the planning, preparation and cultivation of the Tribal garden and orchard site for this year’s planting season, contact Barbara Gibbons at 800-242-8196, ext. 2135, or e-mail barbara.gibbons@grandronde.org. ■

COULD YOU TELL THE DIFFERENCE?

WHAT’S FOR SALE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?

With sweet flavoring to mask tobacco’s harsh taste, cheap prices, and bright and colorful packaging, it’s even hard for adults to tell the difference between tobacco and candy. Is it any wonder ninety percent of smokers start before they are eighteen?
