Construction workers needed for work on upcoming projects

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) is seeking construction workers who are CTGR Tribal members and enrolled members of federally-recognized Indian Tribes to participate in a workforce that is being prepared for deployment on construction projects. Projects are located on the Grand Ronde Reservation and on ODOT projects in various locations in northwestern Oregon. TERO is looking for workers in the following job classifications:

- Carpenter
- Laborer
- Equipment operator
- Cement masons
- Truck driver
- Electricians
- Ironworkers
- Loggers
- Painters
- Asphalt workers

In addition, TERO is also seeking experienced Native American highway traffic control flaggers for assignments to projects. A limited amount of training positions in construction trades are available to candidates who meet apprenticeship requirements.

For an application to be considered for these opportunities or for more information, go to www.grandronde.org/tero, e-mail at tero@grandronde.org or call 503-879-2188. ■

Great Food and Big Door Prizes

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Tribal Vocational Rehabilitation (TVR) program is partnering with the Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO), to host an open house. The purpose of this open house is to connect with all tribal families to inform them of TVR services and employment opportunities. Everyone is encouraged to attend. TVR is a program that works with tribal members who have physical or mental disabilities to prepare for, gain or retain employment. TERO works with all Natives from federally recognized Tribes to secure employment. Please attend for an afternoon of family, food, prizes, and employment information.

OPEN HOUSE WILL BE HELD AT THE
