

A day to celebrate 40 years of achievement

LCIS continued

Affairs Administrative Assistant Chelsea Clark and Tribal Council Administrative Assistant Shannon Simi. Tribal member and lobbyist Justin Martin also attended the celebration.

“We worked hard to create a day in which Tribal government leaders, state leaders and those who work for state and Tribal government could come together to celebrate a pretty amazing 40-year history of achievement, conversation, education, information gathering and partnering connected to the LCIS,” said commission Executive Director Karen Quigley. “It was a day of stunning ceremony, memorable remarks by state officials in the Capitol rotunda followed by heartfelt sharing by Tribal leaders to fascinated audiences in two crowded hearing rooms.

“How appropriate to have the day end with a respectful legislator-to-Tribal-leader exchange in a committee hearing promising future dialogue at Tribal locations. The LCIS anniversary celebration had lots of great food, plenty of visiting and smiles and clapping. It was a very good day. Our thanks to Grand Ronde for their big part in making it so.”

The event also featured performances by the Siletz Nee-dash Singers and the Umatilla Bell Singers, as well as Indian fry bread provided by the Native American Rehabilitation Association of the Northwest, which is based in Portland. ■

Lamprey season opens on June 1

The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife has designated the lamprey harvest season at Willamette Falls as 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Fridays through Mondays between June 1 and July 31.

Harvesting is not allowed Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Harvesting is confined to the east side of Willamette Falls and does not include the horseshoe area at the peak of the falls. Gear is restricted to hand or hand-powered tools only.

A permit is required, but Tribal members are allowed to use their Tribal enrollment card in lieu of a state-issued permit.

Catches must be recorded on an Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife harvest card available from the Tribe's Natural Resources Department or by contacting the Clackamas ODFW Office, 17330 S.E. Evelyn St., Clackamas, OR 97015. All harvest cards must be returned by Aug. 31, 2015.

For more information, call the Natural Resources Department at 503-879-2424. ■
