

Facilities seeks help identifying veterans' plots

The Facilities Department is asking for help in identifying the plots of veterans buried in the Tribal Cemetery.

If your family member or friend is a veteran and there is not a U.S. flag present on their plot on holidays, such as Memorial Day, please contact the department, which will do its best to mark all gravesites of veterans. For more information, contact Facilities at 503-879-2195. ■

Canoe Family will start program at 10 a.m. in gym

immediately north of the Tribal Cemetery off Grand Ronde Road.

The Atudship rock mound is a monument honoring the plight and Restoration of the more than 27 Tribes and bands that make up the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde.

"Atudship" is a Tualatin-Kalapuya term meaning to heap up earth and rocks, a Native ceremony that is usually associated with the practice of obtaining power.

Rocks from the Rogue River in southern Oregon were recently collected by Tribal Council member Tonya Gleason-Shepek, Public Affairs Administrative Assistant Chelsea Clark and Tribal youth Desirae Martin to be added to the memorial.

The Canoe Family will perform a program beginning at 10 a.m. in the Tribal gym that will be followed by the official Restoration program. A meal of salmon, ceremonial stew, wild rice, mixed vegetables, salad with fixings and Shari's pies for dessert will begin at noon. After a break at 2 p.m., a Restoration Powwow will begin at 3 p.m. and it is scheduled to conclude at 9 p.m.

The celebration is being coordinated by Tribal Elders Darlene Aaron, Betty Bly and Steve Bobb Sr. and Tribal members Francene Ambrose, Kathy Cole, Reina Nelson, Julie Brown, Shannon Simi, Stacia Martin and Clark.

Please RSVP to Public Affairs at 503-879-1418 or send an e-mail to publicinfo@grandronde.org so that organizers can get an approximate count of the number of attendees. ■
