

Food Bank provides boxes, seeks help

If you receive SNAP, TANF, SSI or LIHEAP assistance, you automatically qualify for assistance at the Grand Ronde Food Bank, 9675 Grand Ronde Road.

No one will be turned away in need of a food box.

Upcoming food box distribution dates will be 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 9; 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 15; 2 to 6 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 20; and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 29.

The Food Bank will be closed for New Year's Day and on Martin Luther King Jr. Day on Monday, Jan. 18

Those who are unable to pick up a food box may fill out an authorized representative form and that person can pick up a food box on your behalf. The authorization is good for one year.

The Grand Ronde Food Bank – iskam mək'hmək haws – is run by Marion-Polk Food Share, which has been leading the fight to end hunger since 1987 because no one should be hungry.

"It takes a community to fight local hunger," says Food Bank Coordinator Francene Ambrose. "Your gift of time and talent means so much to individuals, families and children who are struggling. We are looking for assistance in repacking food, putting food on the shelves, handing out food boxes on distribution days and end-of-the-month inventory. Groups are welcome and other opportunities are available."

All volunteers are asked to attend annual training. The mandatory training is required every calendar year. The next training is set for 10 a.m. to noon Friday, Jan. 8, at the Education Building training room and covers safe food handling, non-discrimination and warehouse safety.

Call on non-distribution days to ensure someone is available to assist you. You also can sign up for a monthly e-mail for the Food Bank calendar and events, as well as follow the Food Bank on Facebook.

Contact Ambrose at 503-879-3663 or at fambrose@marionpolk-foodshare.org for more information or to volunteer. ■

Oregon Board of Education adopts Tribal flag rules

The Oregon Board of Education adopted rules on displaying sovereign Tribal governmental flags in public schools during its Dec. 10 meeting.

The rules say that upon request from an Oregon sovereign Tribal government, a flag representing the sovereign Tribal government must be displayed on, near or within a school building under the control of the school district board during school hours.

The rule gives the local school district the right to determine the location of the flag in consultation with the requesting sovereign Tribal government and prohibits the school district from charging for displaying the flag.

The rules were prompted by the recent controversy of placing the Grand Ronde Tribal flag in the Willamina High School gym.

The Willamina School Board initially balked at the request and one member of the board suggested charging the Tribe to hang the flag.

However, after establishing a policy, the Willamina School Board voted to allow the Grand Ronde Tribal flag to be hung in the high school gym, which occurred in November. ■

Clothes Closet open Monday, Friday

The Clothes Closet is open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday and Friday on the Tribal campus near the Elders Activity Center at the end of Blacktail Drive.

It accepts clothes, small appliances, small pieces of furniture, electronics and household goods that are clean and in good condition. It does not accept books, large TVs or large furniture, but there is a community board where people can post those items.

Donations are accepted during regular business hours.

For more information or emergency clothes, contact Lori Walker-Hernandez at 559-847-7565 or Daniele Powley at 971-241-6170. ■
