Headstone for Tilmer

Tribal Elder Val Grout sits next to her great-grandmother Tilmer Leno's headstone in the Tribal Cemetery on Friday, Sept. 9. Leno, who was married to David Leno, one of the Tribe's pioneers, walked on on Jan. 18, 1958, and has never had a headstone marking her grave. In 2014, Grout put forth an effort with Tilmer's family members to chip in for the cost of the headstone. The headstone was placed last month after 13 families donated $1,720. The cost of the stone was $2,378 and Grout paid the difference.
