ATTENTION HUNTERS!

Ever wonder what to do with the legs off your Elk or Deer? We've got you covered! Bring them down to the Chachalu Tribal Museum and Cultural Center as a donation. Any donated legs will be used to educate our community in our Elk/Deer Leg Bag classes. Please make sure you cut the legs high above the elbow so there is enough material to use.

Please contact Flicka Lucero (contact information above) to coordinate drop-off. Thank you in advance for your assistance in creating opportunities for our community!

The Cultural Education Program would like to thank the Grand Ronde Ceremonial Hunt Board and Hunters for providing the material used for the bags pictured below.
