Lane Community College offering Chinuk Wawa classes

EUGENE – Lane Community College is offering “Chinuk Wawa” (CW 101) from 4 to 6 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday at its campus in Eugene starting the last week of September.

Grand Ronde Tribal members can take the class, which is the first in a yearlong sequence, as a credit class or as a continuing education class.

Continuing education students enrolled in the class will determine their own level of engagement in terms of attendance, test taking, assignments, etc.

Tuition is approximately $400 to $505 per term for the four-credit class. However, continuing education students only pay a one-time fee of about $10.

Students can enroll now for fall classes online at www.lanecc.edu. The CRN for the class is 22576.

University of Oregon students also can have dual enrollment to take the class. Contact an academic adviser for more information.

Enrollment as a continuing education student is possible by calling Candice Johnson at 541-463-5419.

For more information about the Chinuk Wawa language program at Lane, contact Drew Viles at vilesa@lanecc.edu or calling 541-463-5480. ■

Weatherization funds available for Native homes

McMINNVILLE -- Yamhill Community Action Partnership has limited funds available for weatherizing dwellings occupied by homeowners or renters who are Native Americans.

The partnership's energy technician will perform a free in-home energy audit to determine what weatherization services may be installed. Eligible applicants must be at or below 200 percent of established federal poverty guidelines for the current year and a registered member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde.

For example, a family of four earning $48,600 annually would qualify.

The following items must be provided to qualify for weatherization: approved eligibility application/packet, necessary authorizations completed by the owner/authorized agent and occupant, proof that the property is clear from safety and health hazards, and dwelling must be in Yamhill County. The purpose of the program is to lower energy usage and help lower utility bills.

To request an application or appointment, contact Anaberta at 503-687-1483 or visit www.yamhillcap.org on the Internet. ■
