Grand Ronde Police slate extra patrols during weekend

The Grand Ronde Tribal Police Department will be participating in a high-visibility enforcement grant sponsored by Oregon Impact, the Oregon Department of Transportation and the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration.

Tribal police will be working during the Grand Ronde Contest Powwow weekend of Aug. 18-20 and the Aug. 21 eclipse and will have extra patrols specifically geared toward stopping impaired drivers, as well as careless, reckless and other aggressive driving habits.

Tribal police want to remind everyone that driving under the influence of intoxicants, whether it is alcohol, controlled substances or prescription medications, is enforceable on premises open to the public, which includes Uyxat Powwow Grounds as well as highways, roadways or streets, Sgt. Rod McAllister said.

“The Grand Ronde Tribal Police Department encourages everyone to enjoy these events, but to do so responsibly,” McAllister said. ■

Enrolled Tribal members can request assistance with test fees (i.e. GRE, SAT, LSAT, ACT) and admissions application fees. Contact Higher Education for more information at 1-800-422-0232, ext. 2275. ■
