Foundation seeks mentor artists

VANCOUVER, Wash. – The Native Arts and Cultures Foundation is seeking applicants for its Mentor Artist Fellowships, which is a regional artist award focused on the Pacific Northwest, Southwest and Upper Midwest areas in the country.

The fellowship is open to established American Indian and Alaska Native artists with at least 10 years of experience who want to mentor an emerging American Indian or Alaska Native artist apprentice for one year in either the Traditional Arts or Contemporary Visual Arts fields.

Eligible applicants must be enrolled in an American Indian Tribe or Alaska Native corporation.

The Mentor Artist Fellowship is a monetary award of $20,000 to $30,000 for the mentor, $5,000 for the joint art project and $5,000 for the apprentice's participation expenses. The mentoring period will run from July 1, 2018, through June 30, 2019.

Native artists can find the application at www.nativeartsandcultures.org/programs/funding-opportunities. Application deadline is 5 p.m. Monday, Nov. 6. To learn more about the Mentor Artist Fellowship and the Native Arts and Cultures Foundation, visit www.nativeartsandcultures.org. ■
