

Tribal Services Representative and Tribal Elder Lisa Archuleta measures pureed berries as she makes jam during the Vocational Rehabilitation Jam Making Day held at iskam məkʰmək haws, the Grand Ronde Food Bank, on Thursday, Oct. 12. The jam, made with raspberries, blueberries, blackberries and strawberries, are planned to be part of gift bags to be given to Tribal Elders and past Tribal Council members at the Tribe's Restoration Celebration on Wednesday, Nov. 22. There also was a Jam Making Day held at the Tribe's Portland Office on Friday, Oct. 20. A total of 301 jars were filled with jam between the two days.

Grand Ronde Housing Department

Housing Board seeks community input

The Grand Ronde Housing Board is inviting Tribal members and Tribal housing residents to provide input to assist its members in carrying out its advisory role to the Housing Department and Tribal Council regarding policy guidance. The Housing Board meets at 3 p.m. the third Thursday of each month in the Housing Department conference room, 28450 Tye Road. Its chair is Matt Thomas. For more information, contact the Housing Department at 503-879-2401. ■

Smoke Signals offering e-mail version to read

Want to be one of the first Tribal members to receive Smoke Signals?
 Want to receive the Tribal publication on your computer instead of waiting for it to arrive in the mail?
 Want to get up-to-date and in-the-know about the Grand Ronde Tribe?
 Well, here's your chance. In an effort to be more efficient and reduce costs, Smoke Signals subscribers can have a PDF (portable document format) version sent to them instead of a newsprint version sent via the mail. All you need on your computer is Adobe Acrobat or some other program that can read a PDF and, viola, you're set. Why would you want to do that? The PDF version is available before the newspaper is sent to our Salem printing contractor. You can read the paper on your computer or print out a copy yourself.
 And you will receive Tribal news much faster than the current standard mailing employed by the Tribe.
 If you would like to receive an e-mailed PDF version of Smoke Signals and stop receiving a mailed newsprint version, send your e-mail to esubscription@grandronde.org. ■
