

SMALL CLAIMS ORDINANCE
OPEN FOR COMMENT

The Tribal Council is considering amendments to the Small Claims Ordinance. The proposed amendments were given a First Reading at the January 24, 2018, Tribal Council meeting.

The proposed amendments make significant revisions to the Ordinance to update and clarify Ordinance provisions. The Ordinance was adopted in 1993, has not been amended and is very out-of-date. The proposed amendments may also include minor technical (i.e., formatting, typographical, housekeeping) modifications.

Tribal Council invites comment on the proposed amendments to the Small Claims Ordinance. For a copy of the proposed amendments, please contact the Tribal Attorney's Office at 503-879-4664. Please send your comments to the Tribal Attorney's Office, 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, Oregon 97347 or by e-mail to legal@grandronde.org.

Comments must be received by March 5, 2018. ■

Tribal Elder and Marine Corps veteran Steve Bobb Sr.'s design submission for the National Native American Veterans Memorial.

Bobb's Veterans Memorial design not selected

Tribal Elder and Marine Corps veteran Steve Bobb Sr.'s design submission for the National Native American Veterans Memorial to be built at the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington, D.C., was not selected as one of five finalists.

Bobb said the design contest received entries from around the world with 120 designs completing the first stage requirements. Those entries were juried and five finalists were selected to move on to the second round.

Bobb, who designed the West Valley Veterans Memorial on the Tribal campus, submitted a design that featured a Native warrior on horseback returning from the past to continue defending the nation taken from him. Charging through a waterfall over a black granite wall, the structure reflects the architecture of the museum, he said.

"I am glad that I entered," Bobb said. "These things can be challenging, but I like that."

The Native American Veterans Memorial is slated to open in 2020. ■

Health & Wellness Center Entrance
