Getting prepared

Brothers Danilo, left, and Armando Contreras check out satellite phones on display during the Preparedness, Health and Safety Fair held in the Tribal gym on Wednesday, May 23. The Tribe's Emergency Management program organized the event to distribute information on what and how to better prepare the community for emergency events and hazards in the Grand Ronde area. Information tables were set up by numerous Tribal departments and the American Red Cross, the Federal Emergency Management Agency and West Valley Fire District were just a few of the outside agencies that were present.

Tribal Dental Assistant Donnette Spaulding gives a toothbrush to Meleena Montano during the Preparedness, Health and Safety Fair held in the Tribal gym on Wednesday, May 23. She also was handing out toothpaste, mouthwash, floss, sunglasses and information about good oral health at the Dental Clinic table.
