'Flute Medicine' wins One Word Music Award

"Flute Medicine," the most recent compact disc released by Tribal Lands Manager and multiple Native American Music Awards recipient Jan Michael Looking Wolf Reibach, was named the Best Native American Album of 2017 at the One World Music Awards on Saturday, June 2.

One World Music is the No. 1 radio station in Europe that plays ambient and instrumental music.

The release also recently received the Best Instrumental Album of the Year awarded at the 13th annual Indigenous Music Awards handed out May 18 in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

"Flute Medicine" embodies the most pure, connective musical expressions with the Native American flute that I've been blessed to make," Reibach said. "The inspiration for my music comes from being part of our amazing Tribe. I share this honor with each of you."

"Flute Medicine," recorded in 432 hertz, was the topic of a Smoke Signals podcast posted on Jan. 24.
