Family Night Out

Photos by Auburn Logan

Maliea Smith, above, attempts to climb to the top of a climbing wall during the 14th annual Family Night Out held in front of the Governance Center on Thursday, June 21. The annual event is sponsored by the Social Services and Housing departments and allows families and community members to get involved in outdoor activities, play games and enjoy the community. In addition, many Tribal departments staffed tables at the event and information about meth awareness was distributed. Below, 477/Employment & Training Specialist Barbara Gibbons hands out candy to Jenevieve Davis after she participated in the Candy Walk during the Night Out. Also pictured is Eva Jurado.

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) is seeking construction workers who are CTGR Tribal members and enrolled members of federally recognized Indian Tribes to participate in a workforce that is being prepared for deployment on construction projects. Projects are located on the Grand Ronde Reservation and on ODOT projects in various locations in northwestern Oregon. TERO also has training and apprenticeship opportunities available

TERO is looking for workers in the following job classifications:

- Carpenter
- Loggers
- Laborer
- Painters
- Cement Mason
- Asphalt workers
- Truck Drivers
- Flaggers
- Equipment Operator

For an application to be considered for these opportunities or for information, go to www.grandronde.org/departments/tero email at tero@grandronde.org or call Keri Kinsey at 503-879-2188.
