Commission seeking artists

The Oregon Arts Commission is seeking artists, including Tribal artists, to submit qualifications for consideration for the commission of artwork for the Forest Science Complex at Oregon State University in Corvallis.

There are three commissions available: a project that addresses the arboretum entrance, an interior arboretum gathering space and the interior of Peavy Hall.

Working in partnership with the nine federally recognized Tribes in Oregon, artists are being encouraged to create artworks reflective of cultural imagery associated with the state’s Native cultures.

Funding for the three commissions is made possible through Oregon’s Percent for Art in Public Places program. The tentative schedule calls for finalists being selected by December and installation of artwork by fall of 2020.

To submit an application or for more information, contact Oregon Arts Commission Project Manager Kate Ali at 541-937-4291 or via e-mail at aliartcoordinator@gmail.com. ■

Clothes Closet open Friday mornings

The Clothes Closet is open from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. the first and third Fridays of the month and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. all other Fridays on the Tribal campus near the Elders Activity Center at the end of Blacktail Drive.

The Clothes Closet accepts clothing, small appliances, small pieces of furniture, electronics and household goods that are clean and in good condition. It does not accept books, large TVs or large furniture, but there is a community board where people can post those items.

Donations are accepted during regular business hours.

For more information or emergency clothes, contact Lori Walker-Hernandez at 559-847-7565. ■

WIC visits Community Center monthly

Pregnant? Breastfeeding? Does your family include a child under the age of 5?

If so, you may qualify for the Women, Infants and Children program. With WIC, people can receive answers to nutritional questions and access fruits and vegetables, whole grains, eggs, milk, cheese, juice, cereal and more.

A WIC representative visits the Tribal Community Center on the third Tuesday of the month, which will be Nov. 20.

Walk-ins are welcome between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 503-879-2034. ■
