Oregon Battle of the Books 2018-19: Titles now available at the Tribal Library. The following book review is a title from the elementary-level Oregon Battle titles.

Book review: “Nightbird” by Alice Hoffman. Inside this book, you’ll be transported into a world of magical creatures, curses and witches. Teresa “Twig” Fowler lives in a charming small town called Sidwell. Rumors are swirling all over town of a monster hiding in the woods near her family’s famous apple orchard. Hundreds of years ago, Twig’s family was cursed by a witch. Since then her family has had to live a secretive, anti-social and lonely life. When a new family moves in next door with a connection to the witch who cursed her family, Twig has a hard time staying away, leading to a forbidden friendship and a mission to vanquish her family’s ancient curse. “Nightbird” is full of love, friendship and magical creatures that are sure to keep readers young and old spellbound.

Donations: Our thanks to Faye Smith, Debbie Bachman, Margo Mercier, Oscar Norwest and Donn Grishaber for their donations to the collection. We appreciate the generosity of our friends of the library.

Reminder: Donated items must be clean and in good condition.

Inter-Library Loan services: The Tribal Library partners with Oregon State Library to offer “library to library” inter-library loan services.

The eagle has landed
