Fish return

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

Freshly caught Coho salmon is cooked over a fire of locally sourced alder for the Agency Creek First Fish Ceremony held on Wednesday, Nov. 28, near the fish weir on the Tribal campus in Grand Ronde. The event celebrates the return of fish to Reservation waterways – a 215-mile journey from the Pacific Ocean, up the Columbia and Willamette rivers and back to Agency Creek. Tribal Council members also truncated their meeting that day to attend the event.

Cultural Advisor Bobby Mercier prepares to serve freshly caught Coho salmon as Youth Education students watch during the Agency Creek First Fish Ceremony held on Wednesday, Nov. 28.

Adult Foster Program

“A Place To Call Home”

The Tribe’s Adult Foster Care lodges are committed to offering quality care to our Elders and helping them remain as independent as possible, while providing the personalized assistance they need. At our lodges, a wide range of services is available in a comfortable setting where privacy is respected and maximum independence is supported. For information, contact Adult Foster Program Director Peggy Shaver at 503-879-1694. ■
