

Students scramble to find their names on slips of paper on the first day of the Youth Education Department's Spring Break Camp held at the B'nai B'rith Camp in Otis on Monday, March 25. During the three-day event, campers went through team-building exercises that bring the Tribal community together, especially for those who live outside of Grand Ronde.

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

Spring break

Family Support Specialist Zoey Holsclaw, left, looks on as Mikayla Mercier, 11, and Tasina Bluehorse, 12, add their names on to the House Lume flag on the first day of the Youth Education Department's Spring Break Camp held at the B'nai B'rith Camp in Otis on Monday, March 25.

Denali Williams, 13, Kaileighann Taylor, 12, and Summer Townsend, 12, work on the White Tigers' flag during the first day of the Youth Education Department's Spring Break Camp held at the B'nai B'rith Camp in Otis on Monday, March 25.

Students mingle as they try to find other group members on the first day of the Youth Education Department's Spring Break Camp held at the B'nai B'rith Camp in Otis on Monday, March 25.

Visit Smoke Signals' facebook page to see more photos