Book Review: “Requiem for a People” by Stephen Dow Beckham.

I would highly recommend this book to anyone wanting to learn more about Oregon Native American history and culture. This is an eye-opening chronicle of southwestern Oregon’s Rogue River Indian wars and their subsequent subjugation and removal from their homelands.

“Requiem for a People” was first published in 1971 and was the first scholarly look at Oregon’s Rogue River Native Americans, whose way of life was quickly destroyed when the West was settled by Europeans.

There were a documented 9,500 Natives in the area when settlers first came to Oregon and after six years only 2,000 Rogues survived the wars, diseases, starvation and destruction.

The thorough details in this book will pull you in, taking you back to a place in time that was harsh and unforgiving. – by Crystal Bigelow

Donations: A special thanks to Rick Andersen, Debbie Bachman and Crystal Bigelow for their contributions to the Tribal Library’s collection. We truly appreciate your donations.

Reminder: Donated items must be clean and in good condition.

Inter-Library loan services: The Tribal Library partners with Oregon State Library to offer “library to library” inter-library loan services.

CHINUK KINDERGARTEN

IMMERSION

As of May 20th, 2019 we will be accepting registration applications for interested incoming Kindergarteners. We are a half day immersion program offering instruction in Chinuk through our culture and place-based curriculum. Our students attend half day in our program and must be enrolled in Willamina Elementary School for the second half of the school day. No prior language experience required, however we do have language and tribal preference once we are at capacity.

Applications are available at Adult Education and can be turned in starting May 20th
