Book Review: “A Man Called Ove” by Fredrik Backman.
Ove is the quintessential grumpy old man who thinks the world is filled with idiots and that he’s always right. If you have a grumpy old man in your life, you may find some similarities. I know I did.
He’s the kind of man who believes rules and regulations are of utmost importance. He spends much of his time patrolling the neighborhood looking for people who are breaking the rules. Ove isn’t just a grumpy old man, he is also a very sad man with a past that has heartbreak, disappointments and tragedy.
The story shifts back and forth between present-day Ove and Ove’s early years giving you an understanding of why he is the man he is today. The more you learn about him the more you’ll fall in love. In between Ove’s shouting fits there is a story with heartwarming moments and humor. I even laughed out loud a few times. There is also a movie made based on the book. Overall, I really enjoyed the book and I found Ove’s story to be fantastic. — Reviewed by Crystal Bigelow

Donations: A special thanks to Roberta “Bobby” Ulrich and the Tribal Prevention Program for their contributions to the Tribal Library’s collection. We truly appreciate your donations.

Reminder: Donated items must be clean and in good condition.

Inter-Library loan services: The Tribal Library partners with Oregon State Library to offer “library to library” inter-library loan services.

District offering free summer meals

Willamina School District will provide free meals to children during the summer as it has for the last 22 years.

Each year, the U.S. Department of Agriculture partners with local organizations to provide free meals to children when school is out for the summer. Anyone aged 1 to 18 can eat for free with no income requirements or registration required.

The schedule will be:

- 11 to 11:45 a.m. Monday through Thursday at Willamina Elementary School through July 25;
- Noon to 12:30 p.m. at Tina Miller Park through Aug. 9;
- 1 to 1:30 p.m. at Raven Loop Park in Grand Ronde through Aug. 9;

There will be no meals served on Thursday and Friday, July 4-5. To find other summer meal sites, visit SummerFoodOregon.org or call 211.

For more information, visit www.willamina.k12.or.us or call 503-876-2702. ■

Sewing class participants wanted

The sewing classes that have been held at the Elders Activity Center have been canceled due to lack of participation. Classes could resume if at least six people commit to attending.
