

2019-20 Veterans Royalty

Mabel Brisbois receives her crown after being named Senior Veterans Queen on the first night of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow held at úyxat Powwow Grounds on Friday, July 12.

Tasina Bluehorse receives her crown after being named Junior Veterans Queen on the first night of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow.

Nacoma Liebelt receives his medallion after being named Veterans Warrior on the first night of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow.

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

Jordan Warren receives help from his father, Jon Warren (both Chetco Tu-Tu Dine), in preparing for Grand Entry on the second day of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow held at úyxat Powwow Grounds on Saturday, July 13.

Jingle dancers perform during Grand Entry on the first night of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow.

Tribal Council member Steve Bobb Sr. talks about Bobby Buswell, a Willamina High School classmate, who was killed in Vietnam in 1969, during Grand Entry on the second day of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow

Veterans line up while participating in Grand Entry on the second day of the Marcellus Norwest Memorial Veterans Powwow.

