Grand Ronde Editorial Board position opening

The Grand Ronde Editorial Board, a Tribal board assigned the duty by the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde ("Grand Ronde") of overseeing its independent Tribal press (Smoke Signals), invites applications to serve on the Grand Ronde Editorial Board. There is one open board position.

The five-member Grand Ronde Editorial Board is responsible to the Grand Ronde Tribal Council. It oversees the editor of Smoke Signals to ensure the independent Tribal press reports news free from any undue influence and free from any political interest, and that Tribal news employees adhere to the highest ethical journalistic standards.

The Editorial Board meets monthly. From time to time, additional special meetings may be held. Board members are expected to attend all meetings in person, although participation by telephone or video will be permitted on occasion. Each board member receives a monthly stipend for attending meetings. Travel reimbursement is limited to travel within the six counties of Polk, Yamhill, Marion, Tillamook, Multnomah and Washington.

Board members must be 18 years of age, have qualified experience in management and/or publications, be of good character and integrity, and certify that he or she will adhere to the standards of accepted ethics of journalism as defined by the Society of Professional Journalists and endorsed by the Native American Journalists Association. Experience with and knowledge of Native American organizations is also preferred, as well as dedication to protecting and advancing a free press for the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde.

Applicants will be interviewed by the Grand Ronde Editorial Board before a recommendation is forwarded to Tribal Council for official appointment.

Preference will be given to qualified Tribal members.

Submission deadline: Friday, Aug. 21, 2020

Interested individuals should submit a letter of interest describing their qualifications, a résumé and three references to:

Grand Ronde Editorial Board
c/o Smoke Signals
Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde

Afterhours health line

Tribal members can contact the Afterhours Health Line for questions about health care concerns you may have when the clinic is not open. You can reach the Afterhours Health Line by calling 503-879-2002 and follow the prompts.

The Afterhours Health Line will coordinate care and communicate with Grand Ronde Health & Wellness Center providers. ■

ATNI seeking Indigenous youth videos about climate

The Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians is seeking video submissions from Indigenous youth for the 2021 National Tribal Leadership Climate Change Summit that will be held in Seattle.

Up to four winners will receive full travel awards valued at $900 maximum and up to four runners-up will receive partial travel awards valued at $400 maximum to attend the summit in May 2021.

ATNI wants to explore the effects of climate change through the eyes, experiences and passions of Indigenous youth. Entrants should submit a video relating to Indigenous peoples and climate change while conveying a message of hope.

Participants should submit their one- to five-minute videos by uploading it to YouTube and using the online submission form at atnitrines.org/climatechange/ts/youth-video-contest/ by Sept. 7. Winners will be notified by Sept. 27. E-mail questions or reach out for feedback while creating your video to Submissions.Natl.Tribal.Summit@gmail.com. ■
