

The graduates

Early Childhood Language Nests twins Azaela and Ariya Anderson smile during the Chinuk Language Program drive-through graduation ceremony held at achaf-hammi on Thursday, Aug. 13. Nine Tribal students graduated during the event.

Early Childhood Immersion Nest student Mila Strutton receives a paddle during the Chinuk Language Program drive-through graduation ceremony.

Early Childhood Language Nest student Violet Zimbrick receives a paddle and gift bag from Chinuk Immersion Preschool Teacher Jeff Mercier.

Ryland Keber, 5, and his mother, Denise Keber, are presented a buena plant during the Early Childhood Head Start/Preschool graduation on the old powwow grounds.

Chinuk Immersion fourth-grader Cloey Freeman and her brother, Early Childhood Language Nest student Isaac Freeman, look through their gift bags during the Chinuk Language Program drive-through graduation ceremony held at achaf-hammi on Thursday, Aug. 13.

