

S

ift bag and ation ceremony.

Bella Allen, 5, exits a rainbow arch during the Early Childhood Head Start/Preschool drive-through graduation held on the old powwow grounds in front of the Governance Center on Friday, Aug. 14. Twenty-five students had their temperatures checked, donned caps and gowns, walked through a rainbow arch and received certificates. Afterward they were driven past stations where they received gifts from different Tribal departments.

d with a small yerba
ol drive-through

Azariah Sherwood, 5, receives a certificate of graduation from Preschool Teachers Aide Alex Warren-Masters during the Early Childhood Head Start/Preschool drive-through graduation.

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

TO SEE MORE PHOTOS Find us on SmokeSignalsCTGR

Travis Holmes-Garcia, 5, receives a stuffed animal and balloons from Education Inclusion Coordinator Gayle Campbell during the Early Childhood Head Start/Preschool drive-through graduation.

Lead by the Canoe Family drummers, a parade of cars containing graduates and families participate in the Chinuk Language Program drive-through graduation ceremony held at achaf-hammi on Thursday, Aug. 13.

