

People listen to remarks being made during a reception about the late Tribal Elder Frank Kowing’s “Breathing the High-altitude Ether of Discovery” exhibit at the Linfield University Gallery in McMinnville on Wednesday, Feb. 16. Kowing walked on in September 2016 and was one of the first Linfield University studio art graduates. The exhibit will be open until Friday, March 18.

Kowing exhibit

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

TO SEE MORE PHOTOS
Find us on
SmokeSignalsCTGR

Adjunct Instructor and Linfield Gallery Curator Thea Gahr listens as Tribal member Terry Kowing speaks about his brother, the late Frank Kowing, during a reception for the “Breathing the High-altitude Ether of Discovery” exhibit.

Attendees peruse artwork during a reception for late Tribal Elder Frank Kowing’s “Breathing the High-altitude Ether of Discovery” exhibit.