Renee LaRose Lawe Lane

Feb. 22, 1939 – May 21, 2022

Tribal Elder Renee LaRose Lawe Lane passed away peacefully at the age of 83 on Saturday, May 21, 2022.

Renee’s family moved to Nevada where her sister, Diane Marie Lawe (Lane) was born. The family moved around a few times before settling in Nevada, where Renee graduated from Yerington High School.

Her parents moved to Phoenix, Ariz., where they worked with the Bureau of Indian Affairs. At this time, Renee went to college to study nursing. In 1960, the family moved back to Oregon where Renee attended business college.

Renee worked at and retired from Chemawa Indian School in Salem, Ore., as an administrator.

Renee always loved reading from a young age, and you could always catch her in her rocking chair reading a book. Her mother taught her to crochet, and she made blankets for her children and grandchildren.

Renee and Diane loved going to the rodeo together and were very close best friends. She would take trips with her family and grandchildren to places like the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone National Park.

Renee liked sports and would watch NASCAR races whenever they were on. She once took a trip with her husband David and son Reynold to Phoenix to watch a live NASCAR race.

She also enjoyed relaxing in her chair while watch sci-fi TV shows like “Star Trek” or “The X Files.”

Renee opened her heart to many and had numerous people who considered her “mom” or “grandma.”
