The Natural Resources Department’s Parks and Recreation program hosted the Summer Youth Program for an archery day on Wednesday, June 22. In two sessions, approximately 25 Tribal youth and staff practiced their archery and corn hole skills. “This year we also had a special apple target that many youth and staff attempted to hit, but at the end of the day only Ezri Bailey was successful,” said Parks and Recreation Coordinator Jerry Bailey. “Natural Resources thanks Youth Education for joining us for the day.”

Fund seeking commercial extras

Spirit Mountain Community Fund is filming new commercials to highlight the good that the Grand Ronde Tribe does with casino dollars, as well as help to make a stronger connection between the Tribe, Spirit Mountain Casino and Community Fund.

Filming will take place Tuesday and Wednesday, July 12-13, and the fund is looking for community members to help by filling in as extras during filming.

Four different commercials will be filmed and various extras will be needed both days from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be a powwow scene filmed on July 13 that will need approximately 200 extras. There will be drumming and dancing and the extras will be staged around the úyxat Powwow grounds to fill in as spectators during the powwow.

Lunch will be provided for all extras who volunteer for the powwow scene, which will require 20 extras at 9:30 a.m. and 180 extras at 10:30 a.m.

For more information or to volunteer to be an extra, e-mail info@thecomcommunityfund.com or call Angela Schlappie at 503-879-1462. ■
