

Chinuk Wawa Education Program graduate David Priest, 5, smiles for a photograph after receiving his diploma and gifts during the graduation ceremony held on the old powwow grounds on Thursday, Aug 11.

Chinuk Wawa Education Program graduate Verrah Vale, 5, smiles for a photograph after receiving her diploma and gifts during the graduation ceremony.

Chinuk Wawa Education Program graduate David Priest drums during the entrance of the graduation ceremony.

Photos by Timothy J. Gonzalez

Young graduates

From left, Chinuk Wawa Education Program graduates Verrah Vale and Harper Hernandez, 5, participate in the entrance dance during the graduation ceremony.

From left, Remy Epperson, 4, joins 2022 Chinuk Wawa Education Program graduates Harper Hernandez, David Priest and Verrah Vale in a canoe taking them to the graduation ceremony held on the old powwow grounds on Thursday, Aug 11.

VA Helps Veterans ...

Stay healthy

- Eligible Veterans can receive health care, including mental health care and treatment for substance use.

Secure safe, stable housing

- Veterans at imminent risk of becoming homeless can get assistance with expenses such as utilities and child care to help them stay in their homes.
- Qualified Veterans in temporary housing can get help finding a permanent place to live.
- VA can help Veterans having trouble making mortgage payments explore options to avoid foreclosure.

Find a job

- VA provides job training or referrals to help eligible Veterans gain skills to prepare them for employment.
- Work therapy programs can help Veterans who are homeless find temporary housing and a paying job.

Get a degree

- VA can help eligible Veterans go back to school and assist with living expenses while they pursue their studies.

VA provides individualized care through a wide range of services for Veterans who are homeless or at imminent risk of becoming homeless. Veterans of all eras and branches may be eligible for VA services. Make the Call and take the first step to access help from VA.

For Veterans who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless,

Jim, formerly homeless Veteran
Served 2004-2011

VA IS HERE TO HELP.

Make the Call!

Help for Homeless Veterans

877-4AID-VET

va.gov/homeless | (877) 424-3838

Help for Homeless Veterans
877-4AID-VET
va.gov/homeless | (877) 424-3838