Dear Smoke Signals:

My husband, granddaughter and myself attended powwow for the first time since COVID.

There were things I found confusing.

We asked the parking attendant about Elder and handicap parking. He said there was none. Also, he didn't ask for a $1 donation or food, which we gave him.

My husband has had hip and knee surgery, so long, uneven walking is hard and slow.

We stood along an open entrance that a guard would not let us by to even see if there was seating. A very kind lady came down and told us there were two blankets laid that no one has used. She showed us and we sat and thanked her very much. She even went and got us water!

The covered Elder seating is behind the arena. How can they see?

The drummers and most of all dancers in their beautiful regalia were so wonderful. The tiny tots are our favorite.
