Pacific University hosting Reconciliation Powwow

Pacific University's Indigenous Student Alliance is hosting a Reconciliation Powwow. It will be held to honor Forest Grove Indian Training School students who attended and lost their lives at the school, Indigenous Student Alliance Advisor Nikol Roubidoux said.

"The May 4 event will not be a competition powwow given the meaning behind it," she said. "We welcome dancers, drummers and artisan vendors to come and celebrate our culture and our future."

She added that the intent is to celebrate the Kalapuya people and to establish a meaningful relationship with the Grand Ronde community.

"The students and I thank you and hope you will join us on May 4," Roubidoux said.

Grand Entry will be held at 1 and 7 p.m. and admission is free. Pacific University is located at 2043 College Way, Forest Grove.
