THURSDAY, JAN. 24, 1901.

NEWS NOTES.

Cape Colony, South Africa, has been put under military rule.

According to the London Press the British in South Africa are on the defensive.

The Senate has passed House bill increasing the number of congressmen 28 in number.

A price of $18,000 dollars is placed upon the head of Pat Crowe, the supposed kidnapper of young Cudahy.

C. F. Neeley, the embezzler of Cuban funds is to be taken to Cuba this week. Justice may overtake him yet.

The Electorial College elected Wm. McKinley president of the United States for the second time on the 14 inst.

The sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States is reported to have been practically concluded on the 11 inst.

Ex Governor Mount, of Indiana, who refused to deliver Taylor over to the authorities of Kentucky, died on the 16th inst.

The Oregon legislature organized on Monday the 14th with C. W. Fulton, of Clatsop county, speaker of the Senate, and L. B. Reeder, of Umatilla county, speaker of the House.

The Congressional Committee that was appointed to inquire into the hazing of cadets, admitted to West Point, has been beneficial in that the cadets have voluntarily agreed to quit hazing new members.

Oregonian: The ill wind that is blowing between Senators Pettigrew and Hanna promises to blow good to the people at large in preventing a vote on the ship subsidy bill. While Pettigrew, in a spirit of personal revenge against Hanna in opposing this bill, because the latter went some thousands of miles out of his way to defeat him last Fall, he has strong support in opposing the bill on the basis of the greatest good to the greatest number. The West is bringing strong influence to bear against the bill, and even Senator Frye, next to Hanna its strongest champion, admits that the measure must be amended in "a spirit of compromise" in order to give it any chance to get through this session.

While several children were playing upon the plank road in front of Mrs. Kate Sneed's residence, last Sunday evening, Mary Sneed fell off her head striking upon a small log produced concussion of the brain and rendered her insensible for some time. The children were whirling round, and the little girl became dizzy and fell, going under the railing. She has been under the care of a physician ever since but is about all right again.

A Surprise.

On Monday evening a number of our Christian friends came to surprise us as a farewell." All seemed to enjoy themselves. Several valuable gifts were presented with appropriate remarks. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. entertained us so well last Saturday night that we have hardly gotten over it yet. It reminds me of Col. Siglin at one of our Bandon G. A. R. encampments. He said, "The people of Bandon treated him well and often."

We hope that Bandon people will prosper and that they may pull together for right, good laws, and the elevation of the young people of the town.

With love to all we remain,

A. M. SUMNER.

Queen Victoria Dead.

Word reached here yesterday of the death of Queen Victoria, queen of England, which occurred Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at Osborne. Queen Victoria had reached the age of 81 years 244 days, being four days older than George III., her grandfather who died in 1820, and thus becomes not only the monarch that has occupied the English throne the longest but the most aged of English monarchs also.

England is now a country in mourning, and speculation will be rife as to what a change in rulers will produce. The Prince of Wales is the Crown Prince and ascends to the Throne.
