MARINE NOTES
ARRIVED
Oct. 14.—Schooner Del Norte, Jacobson, 1 day from Rogue River, to C. M. & T. Co.

From the Marshfield Sun:

Captain H. R. Reed is engaged laying out the plans of the new schooner he will build. A gang of men are getting out the keel on the Coquille.

The keel has been laid in the Marshfield shipyard for another schooner—a duplicate of the James Sennet, and work is to be rushed as fast as men and means will allow.

Matt Nystrom, proprietor of the Myrtle Point hotel, was in Marshfield to-day en route for San Francisco. He informs us that he will purchase furniture in the city to refit his house, and expects to assume management by the 1st prox.

George Schroeder, foreman of the Ten-mile creamery, was in town Tuesday. His plant has been shut down, owing to scarcity of grass as farmers do not feed their stock, but he expects that as the rains have started the feed that the creamery will soon resume operations.

Trouble in Spain.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A special correspondent of the Herald at Cerbera, France, cables as follows:
"Carlist agents are overrunning the Province of Lerida. At a meeting of Carlist chiefs held at a house in the Rue Fusterie, at Perpignan, under the presidency of General Moore, it was resolved to enter Spain by way of Lerida and begin the insurrection. General Moore has left for Marsailles."

Coming Out at the Small End

Chicago Inter Ocean.
The enemies of Admiral Schley started in to prove that, as "Historian" Maclay put it, the victor of Santiago was a coward and a coward. They had to abandon this line of attack at once. Then they were quite sure they could prove that he lacked decision and would not obey orders. Confessions by their own tools established the fact that whatever indecision he may have shown was due to the fact that orders and information sent to other commanders never were delivered to him. Now they are resting their case wholly on the last desperate hope that they can show that he was at least "confused" during the battle of Santiago.

Perhaps he was, but where is the Spanish fleet now?

Ransom for Miss Stone.

CONSTANTINOPLE Oct. 11.—In compliance with a request from Washington, the search by Ottoman troops for the abductors of Miss Stone, the American missionary, has been abandoned, it being feared that the brigands would kill her should they be closely pursued. Arrangements are now being made to pay the ransom demanded.

Outbreak of Civil War Expected by Russians.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—It is regarded here as certain that there will be an outbreak of civil war in Afghanistan, says a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Daily Mail. "Arising from the claims of the fourth son of the late Amir, Mobsammed Umar Khan, who is favored by Russia. Telegrams were sent to Kush to-day, ordering large reinforcements of Russian troops along the frontier to be in readiness, if necessary, to seize Herat."

"HOME AND FAMILY"

is a large, eight-page, 48-column monthly journal for the home and family. It has splendid serial stories; bright, thrilling short stories; brilliant sketches; beautiful poems; a boys' and girls' page; reliable articles for the farmer, mechanic, professional man—for everyone, in fact; it has the newest and latest fashions for ladies fully illustrated; in fact, "Home and Family" is all that a journal for the People, everywhere—in town, city, and country—should be, and for a short time the subscription price will be only 15 cents for a whole year's subscription. "Home and Family" is well worth 50 cents a year, and later on, that will be the price. Send 15 cents to-day, and secure a year's subscription. Postage stamps accepted. Get one or two friends to do the same. You will be glad that you did so.

Address:—"HOME AND FAMILY"
26 Church Street, White Plains, N. Y.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grimet, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

To Float the Baroda.

Captain W. Burns, who arrived here some three or four weeks ago, from Glasgow, Scotland, has started operations toward floating the bark Baroda.

Captain Burns secured a portion of the wrecking gear, of the White-law, while at the bay last week which is to be used in the effort to float the Baroda.

A number of men were put to work Monday morning getting things ready to prosecute the work, and ten more were to start yesterday morning, besides the life-saving crew who went to the scene of operations with the surf boat. Several more men will be set to work in a few days, and the aim is to be ready to float the vessel during the high tides about October 28.

Three anchors were dropped from the steamer Mandalay, yesterday morning, 600 fathoms to sea from the Baroda, and a wire cable was run ashore by which to haul in a large cable which is to be sent up from San Francisco.

The work is not being done by contract, and it remains to be determined as to what will be done in case the vessel is not floated during the high tides of the time specified.

AROUND THE COUNTY.

From the Myrtle Point Enterprise.
Doc. and Eckley Goerin arrived home from North Yakima, Wednesday, where they have been employed with the U. S. surveyors during the summer.

Rev. Jas. Moore and family departed this morning for Drain, where Mr. Moore has been assigned to the charge of the M. E. church. Rev. Moore has been in charge of the M. E. church at this place for the past two years and has made many friends here who regret his removal from among us.

Married, at Coquille City Oct. 7, 1901, Effie May Giles and Henry H. Harris, Judge L. Harlocker officiating. The bride is the eldest daughter of Daniel Giles of this place and the groom is one of the progressive farmers of South Fork. They are both well known and estimable young people and have many friends in this vicinity who join in wishing them a happy and prosperous future.
