From the Coquille Bulletin we learn that the schooner Zampa, which the Coast Mail, of last week, in trying to wiggle out of a mistake of the week before, said was outside the the Coquille bar, was barbed in the Umpqua. It begins to look as though the Mail man was travelling under aberration.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

GEORGE LEACH INJURED:—In a very serious accident which occurred at Pike's camp, at Randolph, last Friday morning. While tending the cable which is used in hauling logs from a landing on the hill to the lower landing, and was standing with one foot over the cable fastening it to the log when the cable which had caught under the log, upon being tightened slipped from under the log and struck him on the right leg with such force that it shattered both bones just above the ankle and bruised and cut the flesh badly. The injury is a very serious one, and Mr. Leach will be laid up for several weeks and will no doubt be crippled for life. He was brought to this city, Friday morning, and is now at the Wickham boarding house. Mr. Leach, at this writing, is resting as easy as could be expected under the circumstances.—Coquille Bulletin, Nov. 1st.

Fishing closed here the latter part of last week although the season is not closed until the 20th of November. The last fish of the lot filled the last available can so that the cans and fish broke even. Mr. Timmons put up over 7000 cases of salmon this season.

The rough surf has prevented the laying of cables between the ship Baroda and the anchors, so far but preparation is going forward so as to have all things ready by the high tides during the latter part of November, and the cables will be laid as soon as the surf permits.

Abia Barrows, of Bullards, was in town Monday, and as L. C. Gibson found him talking to the editor. Gibson charged Barrows with having an object in view. But it is just as reasonable to suppose that Levi C. Gibson had an object in view, at least they are both here together.

The list of outgoing passengers on the steamer Mandalay last Sunday evening when she sailed was as follows: J. O. Goodloe and wife, Miss Maggie Boyle, Joe Donnebaum, F. L. Layton, W. R. Pantor, Ralph Prewett, Missa Mand and Grace Garfield, Mrs R. Pomeroy, and two or three other persons whose names could not be obtained. The Mandalay is expected back by the middle of next week.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: W. E. Lundy arrived at this place Wednesday from Nome where he has been since last June. He left Nome the 25 of September on the steamer Queen and arrived at Seattle on the 2nd making the trip in seven days—the quickest trip from Nome to Seattle on record. He informs us that it has been an unusually bad season at Nome. The season has been too short for much mining and a good part of the country did not thaw out at all. No new strikes were made this summer but old claims on Anvil and Glacier creeks turned out well. Mr. Lundy put in most of the season prospecting and has several claims which he thinks are very good. John Giles and Sam Currier, from this place, were still at Nome and had quit prospecting and were working for wages. They expect to leave Nome about Oct. 1st and will probably arrive at this place in a few days.

Levi Snyder was looking around town and greeting old friends last Monday having had business which called him here. He returned home next day to Arago where he is living now.

Engineer W. G. Carroll, who has charge of the lighthouse repairs finished transporting the brick over the river Tuesday. The scow and its load came near sinking, on Monday by a leak in one end of the scow.

Captain T. White has put the Dispatch on the mudflat and is giving her an overhauling preparatory for the winter's run. The Favorite has taken her run, while the steamer Antelope is on the run of the latter.

The town council will merit the good wishes of the citizens of Bandon, if it will abolish that muddy crossing in front of the livery stable. Perhaps it might be a good plan to declare it a nuisance, and then have it fixed.

Elder C. E. Crumley delivered four very interesting discourses during Sunday and the two days following, at this place. One of these was on "Authority," a subject that should be most thoroughly inquired into by every person without regard to sect.

A heavy swell, during high tide last night caused the steamer Dispatch to drag her anchor, and bump against the bridge between First and Atwater streets, with the result that three pilings were knocked out and two or three of the pilings damaged in the steamers wheel.

The Steamer Marshfield Launched.

The steamer Marshfield was successfully launched Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m. from the stocks in the Pacific Shipbuilding Company's yard in this city. The launch was witnessed by a throng of people, and was a pretty sight. The usual christening ceremonies were performed by Miss Esther Asplund, who broke the bottle of champagne over the bow of the steamer as she gracefully glided down the ways, and gave to her the name of Marshfield. The title the new craft was to carry was kept a secret, and it came as a very pleasant surprise to our people, who will ever feel interested in the welfare of our city's name sake.

The Marshfield is a boat of about 400 tons net burden, and is the property of C. A. Hooper & Co., of San Francisco. She was built for the tide port trade on the Mendocino coast, and is arranged to use oil for fuel. She has fine lines and for staunchness is without a rival in her class. In her, E. H. Henckendorff, designer and builder, finds one of his masterpieces.

The Marshfield will load lumber here and then be towed to San Francisco, where she receives her boiler and machinery.—Marshfield Sun.

Fraternal Aid Association.

Aurora Council of this order was organized Thursday evening Oct. 31, in Concrete (or Dyer) hall, Bandon, by J. H. Frederick, State Organizer, assisted by Rev. J. M. Hunter of Coquille.

To The Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64—Thirty seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—President Roosevelt to-day issued his proclamation fixing Thursday, November 28, as a day of National thanksgiving. It reads:

"A Proclamation—The season is nigh when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the President appoints a day as the especial occasion for praise and thanksgiving to God.

This thanksgiving finds the people still bowed with sorrow for the death of a great and good President. We mourn President McKinley because we loved and honored him, and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety and a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty, which, as a Nation, we thus far safely tread.

Yet, in spite of this great disaster, it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The past year, in particular, has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material, and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which, on this earth and at this time, each of us does his duty to his fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 28th of this present November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship thank the Giver of all good for the countless blessings of our National life.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this 21 day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty sixth.

(Seal) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT." By the President, John Hay, Secretary of State.
