Santa Claus has established his headquarters, for nuts and candies at Magoon's Store during the Holidays. Attorney J. M. Upton had business which called him to Marshfield last Friday. He returned home Monday. FOUND.—A small magnifying glass of peculiar construction. Owner can have same by calling and paying for this notice. Persons wishing to have carpets woven will please call on Mrs. T. C. Livesay, next door east of broom handle factory. C. F. Linegar, of Coquille, was one of the visitors to this place, last week, as was also Dick Barrows and William Williams from the same place. Rev. Gillespie will preach in the Presbyterian church, each Sunday, morning and evening at the usual hours, until the end of January, 1902. By mistake the name of Charles Langlois was substituted for that of Thomas Langlois in the reported list of officers elected by Court Queen of the Forest. Next Wednesday is Christmas and before the Recorder is issued again the eventful period will be past, hence we wish our patrons and friends a Merry Christmas. Mrs. F. E. Palmer started last Monday for Massachusetts. She will have to visit Oregon City to attend to some business after which she will proceed on Eastward. A. J. Counts, the Dairyville freighter, was in town Monday night and took back a load of freight next day. Among other things included in his load was an organ which Mrs. Peter Hagenen of that place had purchased for her daughter. Selected Italian and Petite prunes, thoroughly dry, wholesome and unductored fruit, at 5 cents per lb. I dry and recommend them. One order will convince you. Liberal discount to dealers and others who buy $1000 worth. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon. Mrs. J. E. Morris, of this place had the misfortune to slip and fall upon the sidewalk on Wednesday morning of last week with the result that she fractured her arm at the wrist. Dr. Hayden reduced the fracture and the patient is doing as well as possible under the circumstances. Preparation is going forward to observe Christmas in the usual manner. The Presbyterians, also the Methodists will each have a tree in their respective churches, with the usual exercises, on Christmas eve, while the Latter Day Saints have chosen Christmas evening for their festive exercises. They purpose having a Christmas tree also. A. J. Saeil wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe. There was a wedding in town Tuesday of last week, but our reporter failed to gather the news in time to report for last issue, hence this tardy mention. The groom was James H. Welch and the bride was Mrs. L. A. Jackson. The Band was a little tardy too in getting there with the charivari, but on Thursday evening the members of that organization paid their respects to the newly wedded couple, only however the groom was not at home but nevertheless he had prepared for them, and the bride responded with the necessary refreshments done up in a jar and a cigar box which the boys carried away with them.

Pledging for the wharf was finished yesterday and the driver was dismantled of its boiler which has been taken to the bark Baroda to operate the last big pump received there. The schooner Nettie Sundborg arrived in San Francisco and reported having lost 15000 feet of lumber off Coos bay. She was six days in getting to the City. John Swing and H. Larsen of Marshfield came over Monday in a gasoline launch. Mr. Larsen returned overland to-day. Mr. Swing will go back tomorrow. W. R. Panter and Charles James have been exercising the steamer Venus during the past week in towing scows loaded with hay and coal. They had the steamer on the mudflat and put on a larger propeller. The Bandon G. A. R. Post members have posters out for a Masquerade ball, at this place, and have completed arrangements for an evening of entertainment combined with a dance, Tuesday evening the 24th. H. T. McIntyre, St. Paul, Minn., who has been troubled with a disordered stomach, says, "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do me more good than anything I have ever taken." For sale by C. Y. Lowe. Rev. U. S. Holcomb brought his family down from Coquille last Thursday, to remain a few days. Mrs. Holcomb and children returned home on Monday, Mr. Holcomb remaining to carry on the protracted meeting which he had under way. Captain Burns, who has charge of the work on the ship Baroda, has succeeded in laying the small cable, and is now preparing for the full moon tide, about December 25. If he succeeds in floating her at that time he can hand her over to her owners as a handsome Christmas present. Messrs. W. H. Logan, W. W. Shipley and Norris Thrush have driven the piles for a shed which Elbert Dyer is having erected on the wharf. The shed will be 142x50 feet and will be used for shipping purposes. They have completed driving piling for the wharf and have nearly completed the work connected with the wharf extension. Enforces Full-weight Butter Law. From the Oregonian. Dairy men very generally have been complying with the law prohibiting the selling of short-weight butter. A few days ago State Food and Dairy Commissioner Bailey received information that rolls of butter weighing less than two pounds were being sold at Eugene. He went up there and caused the arrest of C. M. Elspass, proprietor of a creamery, on a charge of selling light-weight butter. Elspass pleaded guilty and was fined $25, and costs amounting to $6.91. This is the first prosecution under the new law, but others will follow as soon as there is occasion, so if any dairyman has been selling light-weight butter he will do well to reform in time. Through the efforts of Mr. Bailey oleomargarine has been completely shut out of Oregon, and now he is determined that consumers of butter shall have rolls of full weight for their money.

O. F. Topping is still on the sick list. Joe Bladsoe and E. C. Holland of Coquille, were doing Bandon yesterday. F. L. Lowe came over from Marshfield yesterday, and will remain until after the holidays. Christmas shopping is going on quite lively this week. Jack Frost is a frequent and vigorous visitor to this section. Rev. George Gillespie returned here last Monday, from Curry county and will remain until February. The F. D. Band are getting ready to give a ball on New Year's eve and will have out posters early next week. The O. K. Restaurant managers are fixing up the lower rooms in the building they occupy and will move the restaurant down stairs. They are getting ready for business and propose to give a first-class midnight supper for the Masqueraders on Tuesday night. Entertainment. A recital will be given by the pupils of Mrs. Wooten's elocution classes in Munck's Hall on Saturday evening December 23, 1901. An especially attractive program is being prepared, the features of which will be harmony movements by 24 young ladies in Greek costume, Emerson exercises in physical culture, fancy steps, bell drills, and recitations; the whole to conclude with a laughable farce. The proceeds will be used to purchase seats for the intermediate department of the Bandon School. General admission: Adults, 35 cents; children, 15 cents. Reserved Seats, 50 cents. Captured a Beer Command. LONDON, Dec. 11.—Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch from Standerton, Transvaal, Tuesday, December 10, announces that General Bruce Hamilton, after a night march, surprised and captured practically the whole of the Beer Bethel command at Trichardtfontein early that morning. Seven Boers were killed and 131 were made prisoners. Oregonian: Secretary Root's recommendation that the 403,000 acres of lands now belonging to the friars in the Philippine Islands be purchased by the Government and re-allotted under proper conditions to the inhabitants deserves to be approved and enacted by Congress, because it is the only proper thing to do. We cannot take the lands without payment, for the treaty of Paris confirms all the privileges and rights which the friars enjoyed under Spanish rule, and we cannot leave the friars in possession without perpetuating a grievance upon the people which is as old as the first Spanish settlement. Around the County. From the Coquille City Bulletin. Several seats were received here, Wednesday, and will be placed in the waiting room at the depot. They will add greatly to the comfort of those waiting for trains. Peter Brown, who was stricken with paralysis last week, died at the home of Frank Willard, near Johnson's mill, Monday, and was buried in the Masonic cemetery, in this city, Tuesday evening. Louis Norton was brought to this city Saturday, from the bay and turned over to Sheriff Gallier, to await the setting of the circuit court. The prisoner is a young man 17 years old, and has several crimes laid against him, the greatest being forgery, having forged a note on Flanagan & Bennett's bank, at Marshfield. Several cases of petty larceny have also been traced to him, and he seems to be an all round crook. His bonds were placed at $500, and not being able to raise them he will have to spend the time in jail. Old Grist Ground Over. Representative Tongue introduced a number of bills, as follows: To establish an essay office at Portland. Authorizing the payment to the State of Oregon of claims growing out of the Cayuse War. Appropriating $10,000 for a life-saving station at Tillamook Bay. Appropriating $80,000 for a public building at Oregon City. Authorizing the creation of Crater Lake National Park. Confirming a treaty with the Klamath Indians. To pension Indian War veterans. Extending the privilege of bounty land warrants to persons who served in Indian wars subsequent to 1863. To subject to the state of Oregon claims growing out of various Indian wars. To authorize the admission of Indian War veterans to the State Soldiers' Home on the same terms as the veterans of the Civil War. Practically all are bills that were introduced by Mr. Tongue in previous Congresses.

Where is the Matteawan. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The collier Matteawan, now out 10 days from Nainimo for this port, has been added to the list of overdue vessels, and re-insurance has been quoted at 20 per cent. If nothing is heard of the vessel within the next 24 hours a tug will be sent out to search for her. SEATTLE, Dec. 11.—It is reported from Neah Bay that wreckage with the name Matteawan on pieces of it has washed ashore 14 miles south of Cape Flattery. The find was made a week ago by natives. SEATTLE, Dec. 12.—A special to the Times from Port Townsend says: The mail steamer Gertrude, from Neah Bay this morning brings news which seemingly accounts for the fate of the collier Matteawan, now six days overdue at San Francisco from the Sound. On Saturday last, near Ozette, on the coast, natives found a complete medicine chest and several water and fireproof buckets; also a board, and every piece bears the name "Matteawan" plainly painted. A boy from the Indian School visiting his family at the reservation saw the wreckage, and affirms the identity. The Matteawan is one of the regular line of colliers plying between the Sound and San Francisco, and, owing to her lengthy trip, was placed on the re-insured list recently and quoted at 20 per cent. There is little doubt in shipping circles of this port but what she has been lost. She has been a reliable steamer in the past, and has never missed her schedule more than a few hours. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—It is now conceded that the steam collier Matteawan, which left Nainimo, B. C., for this port 13 days ago, has been lost at sea. December 3 a terrible storm raged along the north coast. Howling northwest gales swept over the track of coasting vessels. Many craft were damaged and several were lost. In all probability this storm, one of the worst in the history of the Coast, worked the destruction of the steel steamer Matteawan and sent the crew of 32 men down to death in the sea or cast them on some bleak shore off the usual track of coasting vessels. James Jerome, managing owner of the collier, who has steadfastly clung to the hope that the Matteawan was merely disabled and would eventually arrive, has now abandoned this theory, and concedes the probable loss of the steamer. Re-insurance on the Matteawan was to-day advanced to 75 per cent. There is considerable interest here as to the fate of the Matteawan as with her crew of 32 souls there were two who formerly belonged to this locality, namely, James S. Averill, who held the position of quartermaster, and William Bossen who shipped on her as oiler. The vessel carried 5000 tons of coal and is reported to have been overloaded by 1700 tons. An article in the S. F. Examiner of the 13th, stated that J. S. Averill had left his valise with a friend, and made the statement that he would make only this one trip more as the vessel was carrying too large loads to insure safety. Coughs and Colds in Children. Recommendations of a Well Known Chicago Physician. I use and prescribe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for almost all obstinate, constricted coughs, with direct results. I prescribe it to all in need and seeking relief from colds and coughs and bronchial affections. It is non-narcotic and safe in the hands of the most unprofessional.
