J. W. Prock, of Port Orford has been in town a couple of days during the past week.

Santa Claus has established his headquarters, for nuts and candies at Magoon's Store during the Holidays.

Saturday was rather a busy day with merchants here as the citizens generally were in making Christmas purchases.

FOUND.—A small magnifying glass of peculiar construction. Owner can have same by calling and paying for this notice.

Persons wishing to have carpets woven will please call on Mrs. T. C. Livesay, next door east of broom handle factory.

C. F. Linegar, of Coquille, was one of the visitors to this place, last week, as was also Dick Barrows and William Williams from the same place.

August Hornbogen, of Two mile, was doing business in Bandon, last Saturday, preparatory to Christmas and remembered the Recorder.

James P. Russel, one of Floras Creek's substantial citizens was doing business in town Tuesday, and made a pleasant call at the Recorder office.

Charles Schroeder and Miss Ethel Dunlap were married on Wednesday of last week at the residence of the bride's parents, James Dunlap and wife, near Norway.

William Denning had one of his hands badly injured while coupling cars at Beaver Hill, one day last week. He was conductor on the Coos Bay & Roseburg Railroad.

Harold Nelson and Warren Littlefield who visited San Francisco some four weeks ago, returned on the Mandalay last week, not having succeeded in finding anything to do in the city.

Joseph N. Russell, formerly of Randolph, who was sent to the asylum at Salem from this county four years ago died there the 8th of December 1901, aged 67 years and 11 months.

J. A. Cox of Floras creek was in town Monday night having come up in big buggy to take Rev. George Gillespie to Dairyville to perform the marriage ceremony for his son Lee who married Miss Eva Anderson.

H. T. McIntyre, St. Paul, Minn., who has been troubled with a disordered stomach, says, "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do me more good than anything I have ever taken." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

R. B. Boyle, who has been staying with Edward Faby and family at Faby's mill for the past two or three months in quest of better health, was a passenger on board the outgoing Mandalay, on his return to his home in Oakland California, having completely recovered.

N. Lorenz has added a magnificent jewelry case to his already large store, and has a stock of fine jewelry consisting of pins, rings, buttons, watches etc. Take a look at it; you will find something that you wish for yourself or perhaps something you may wish to present to a friend.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Best Sorghum at Sandersons.

E. W. Faby, of Prosper, was in town Monday.

Andrew Winkler and wife have moved to Prosper.

E. W. and Mollie Faby and J. A. Morrison, of Ballards, were in town Saturday.

The Recorder wishes its patrons a happy and prosperous New Year.

Call and see our Rubber floor Matting—Cut any size or shape—B. F. Co.

Andrew Forsness the Bear Creek logger was doing Bandon last Saturday.

The Christmas festivities called visitors here from different places in the County.

Clarence Boice visited his parents Z. Boice and wife at Floras Creek, Christmas.

Rev. Allen will preach next Sunday, morning and evening, in the M. E. South, church.

James Lee and G. W. Boone, of Riverton were in town a couple of days during the week.

The back Baroda has been moved out about 90 feet to sea and awaits favorable weather to be taken off.

Allen Boice, of Floras Creek, came up Saturday on a visit to his brother Clarence, and remained over Sunday.

Rev. W. Horsfall will hold services next Sunday, morning and evening in St. John's church at the usual hours.

New Year is almost here. Get your resolutions arranged ready to pass upon, so as to be prepared for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Reed and son Henry, came over this week and will spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Upton, and family.

Adam Pershaker the prosperous lumberman of Prosper took passage to San Francisco, Monday on the steamer Mandalay to look after business interests.

The football game between the Eureka and Marshfield teams came off last Sunday, at Marshfield. It was a well contested game but neither side was able to score a victory.

Report says that the schooner Reliance, which left San Francisco some 40 days ago, to load matchwood at this place, was observed from another vessel, drifting in the ocean, upside down.

Married.—December 25th, 1901, at the residence of the bride's parents, Bandon, Or., Mr. A. C. Curtis, of Libby, Coos Co., Or. and Miss Pearl Hoyt, of Bandon, Or. Rev. G. Gillespie officiating.

There were four seamen who came up from San Francisco to go on the bark Baroda. They went down to the ship on Friday, but returned to town that evening and took passage for San Francisco, when the Mandalay sailed for that place.

The holidays have retarded our work and the Recorder will come out somewhat short in its news, Christmas having been too close to publication day. However, our patrons generally have been feasting, and will be in sympathetic mood.

W. S. Perry was a passenger on the incoming Mandalay last trip having returned from Phoenix, Arizona, where he went some time ago from Coquille City, in quest of better health. He has not fully regained his health but is feeling better than he did.

Married.—December 25th, 1901, at the residence of Mr. J. A. Cox, near Dairyville, Curry Co., Or. Mr. Robert L. Cox, and Miss Eva L. Anderson, both of Curry Co., Or. Rev. G. Gillespie officiating. The Recorder acknowledges a bountiful supply of cake, and joins the friends of the young couple in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

C. T. Fariss and wife returned home yesterday from their visit to Idaho.

Saturday evening brings the exercises of Mrs. Wooten's elocution class. This is an entertainment that interests us as the entertainers are the young ladies and gentlemen of Bandon, and are boys and girls who have been trained here and their effort deserves a crowded house, and as the receipts are kindly handed over to make the intermediate department more comfortable and appropriately furnished, no one can consistently withhold their patronage.

Christmas.

Christmas, with its pleasant associations is past, but it has left its fruit behind, and in this section the crop has been generally of an agreeable character.

Christmas trees, public and private, bloomed and bore their fruit, and many gifts were bestowed and kind remembrances had in token of the divine love which clings around this day.

The Presbyterians and Methodists had each their Christmas tree and exercises on Christmas eve, while the Latter Day Saints held theirs on Christmas evening. The several church houses and trees were nicely decorated and accompanied by appropriate exercises. The attendance was large at the several places and the festivals passed off leaving their ripple of beauty and good behind.

Another feature was the masquerade ball which drew a large following where mirth and music abode throughout the night. The Ball was a success financially and otherwise. Mrs. Mary Strub won the ladies' prize, and Harvey Smith won the prize for gentlemen.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Hoyt to A. C. Curtis, of which mention is made elsewhere, fits into the occasion, and received proper attention from the band which put in its appearance, rendered several pieces of music, and received its part in a distribution of wedding cake.

The Recorder joins the many friends of the bride and groom in congratulations, and acknowledges a supply of cake.

Entertainment.

A recital will be given by the pupils of Mrs. Wooten's elocution classes in Munch's Hall on Saturday evening December 28, 1901.

An especially attractive program is being prepared, the features of which will be harmony movements by 24 young ladies in Greek costume, Emerson exercises in physical culture, fancy steps, bell drills, and recitations; the whole to conclude with a laughable farce.

The proceeds will be used to purchase seats for the intermediate department of the Bandon School.

General admission: Adults, 35 cents; children, 15 cents.

Reserved Seats, 50 cents.

It Pays to Advertise. Draw Full Weight.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Dec. 20.—Among the recent arrivals from the East is Mrs. Morrison, of Quinnesec, Mich. She weighs 304 pounds, avoids dupe, and came through on a 14-fare ticket. Some say she brought a child with her, but others are inclined to the belief that the extra half fare was demanded by the railroad company for extra weight of the passenger. Mrs. Morrison came to Junction City to marry a map she had never seen.

Some months ago Mr. Lingo, a bachelor farmer, 60 years of age, living a few miles from this city, advertised in a matrimonial publication that he was in the market for a wife. Mrs. Morrison answered the advertisement, and after a brief correspondence it was arranged that Mr. Lingo should send for Mrs. Morrison. He did not send the money to pay her fare, but deposited it here and the ticket was sent to Quinnesec. The lady arrived in due season Wednesday night, and next morning Lingo clapped eyes upon her for the first time. Her exact weight was ascertained to be 304 pounds, and she looked it. They were not married at once, and it is said that Mr. Lingo has taken the matter under advisement. The ticket agent has hopes of selling a return ticket to Quinnesec, but it is a rather slim hope.

NOTICE.

Elder J. G. Tilton, Advent Christian, and Elder C. E. Crumley, of the Latter Day Saints, will hold meetings at Swift's Hall, commencing, Sunday December 29.

The A. C. Church believes:

"That man is wholly mortal and is unconscious in death."

"That man is not a dual being, but is a unit being."

"That immortality is conditional, that is, on acceptance of Christ and obedience to his ordinances and commands."

"In the utter extinction of evil and the complete destruction of the wicked from God's universe."

The Reorganized Church, of the L. D. S. believes:

"That man is a dual being."

"That the spirit is immortal therefore is conscious after death."

At 11 A. M. Sunday, Elder Tilton will defend his doctrine and at 7:30 P. M. Elder Crumley will answer, presenting his side.

Monday night Dec. 30, Elder Tilton will speak again, and Tuesday night Elder Crumley will answer, closing the meetings, unless a continuance shall be hereafter announced.

The Latter Day Saints express a desire to understand opposing theories, hence the invitation to Elder Tilton to speak before them.

All who are interested in the nature of man and his destiny are cordially invited to attend.

The Something Wrong.

Roy Holman returned from San Francisco on the steamer when she arrived here last Thursday evening. He was one of the men who shipped on the Nettie Sundberg, of which mention was made two weeks ago as having acted queerly after getting to sea.

The trouble was caused by the vessel having sprung a leak after having sailed. She was loaded down low in the water and it became necessary to throw off a portion of her cargo so the sails were lowered and most of the deck load was heaved overboard.

The reason why the flag was run up to half mast and kept there was because the rope got fouled and could not be righted at that time.

The schooner made San Francisco in six days. C. A. Woolfolk did not prove a success as a sailor and was hardly able to get around during the whole trip.
