Mrs. Ada Simpson returned on the steamer last Tuesday from a visit to San Francisco. She was accompanied by Miss Rose Long who has been in San Francisco some time in the interest of her health. Miss Long has about fully recovered.

Fred N. Perkins, of Two mile, was in town Monday. He remarked that generally the weather was colder at his place than at Bandon, but on this occasion on account of the cold Northwest wind the cold snap had caught Bandon the hardest.

Well, the winter season is advancing and the springtime is coming on apace. Now is the time to be planning spring work, and getting ready to begin when the time comes.

Whether you are a farmer stock raiser or whatever your calling there is almost sure to be some preparation that should receive attention at this season of the year.

A fortnight ago the Myrtle Point Enterprise made the statement that the steamship Mandalay would be taken off the San Francisco Coquille route, qualifying the information by saying that the writer had it from good authority. The Recorder is authorized to say that there was no foundation for the statement, and the master and agents of the vessel is the source of this information.

Instead of the Mandalay being taken off the route between the Coquille and San Francisco, we are informed almost direct from the San Francisco agent that she will run here forever unless burned or sunk by accident. Besides this another boat of lighter draft is to be built at San Francisco expressly to run to the river from that place, while the Mandalay will still keep her present route via Crescent City. The contract is already let.

President T. W. Clark returned home the latter part of last week from San Francisco having come back by way of Oregon city. In a conversation with him a reporter learned that he is looking ahead to increasing business and he says the outlook never was better. The working force is almost complete to do double service and when the help arrives which is now on the way, the night and day relays will be complete, and the mills will run day and night.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annoto Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by C. Y. Lorenz.

The steamer Mandalay changed Masters while in San Francisco last trip. Mr. Bachelor who has hitherto held the position of first mate, succeeded Captain Reed.

In another column we have a notice "Real Estate to Trade," that may contain a bargain for some one of our citizens. It might be profitable to give the matter a thought.

From the best information we have been able to obtain, we learn that the bark Baroda has been weighted down with a thousand to eleven hundred tons of sand ballast, and that operations looking toward floating the vessel will be discontinued until good weather sets in next April or May.

The passenger list on the Mandalay on her arrival Tuesday was as follows: W. H. Barnwell, Mrs. W. H. Barnwell, Mrs. R. S. Gregory, Mrs. Ada Simpson, Miss Rose Long, T. H. Vint, Harley Falk, A. Pershaker, C. W. Hall, G. Pietro, Manuel Costa, Ferdinand Auguste and Johan Arami.

Coquille Bulletin: Extravagant rumors are afloat regarding a "find" made by the railroad section crew near Myrtle Point. It was reported that they had found $700 in coin in a rusty tin can that had been buried between the ties. Foreman Hughes positively refuses to be interviewed on the subject. It is thought this may be a "deposit" made after some of the many robberies which have occurred within the last few years in this county, and for this reason the particulars are not made public for fear of frustrating the authorities investigating the matter.

There were five persons seen perambulating the street last Tuesday evening between seven and nine o'clock, in regard to whom there is some speculation. Two were rather slender, two were of ordinary build, and the fifth took on the proportions of a giant. In their walk, their movements were exotic for persons in male attire. They did not wobble like seafaring persons, hence, they were not sailors, and as their movements were purposeful to that of the male portion of Bandon's citizens, it is almost certain that this quintet was composed of women. Perhaps it was the coming man casting its shadow toward the future, or it may have been a forerunner of the coming woman out upon a manhunt.

Bandon had a little excitement last Friday evening in the way of diversions. Shortly after dark the cry of "fire" followed directly by the ringing of the fire bell called out the firemen with their apparatus ready for work, while it sent many of the citizens of Bandon scurrying toward the point of conflagration, which when reached, proved to be only the soot on fire in the residence portion of the McNair hardware establishment, which part of the building is occupied by Mrs. J. H. Yager, Donald Charleson and his mother. The night was cold and stormy with considerable wind from the northwest, and it was fortunate for Bandon that it was only a fine burning out, as a fire in that quarter of town, fanned by a strong northwest wind would prove very disastrous unless it could be brought under control in the start. The fire made a very pretty light while it sent millions of sparks flitting through the air. However the roofs upon which they fell were too wet to ignite.

E. A. Hughes of Cape Blanco was a Bandon caller on Monday.

Captain Barns and Captain Eaton of the Baroda gave Bandon a call Tuesday.

The steamer Argo is expected to return from San Francisco by Saturday evening or Sunday.

Dale Barrows only went to Sixes last week. Col. Butler and companion concluding to stop there a few days before going on to Crescent City.

Mrs. R. S. Gregory, of Crescent City, arrived Tuesday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. Walker and family of this place. She came up from San Francisco where she had been visiting her son F. P. Frame, and wife. Mrs. G. has usually been free from sea-sickness when on the ocean but the trip up was an exception to the rule, however a few days rest will obliterate the effect.

W. C. Williamson, of Amherst Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other had failed to do." Sold by C. Y. Lorenz.

In Memoriam. Last week we made mention of the death of C. M. Houghton who lived in the south end of the county. The following account of his life and death was sent us but was not received until after the paper was published: Calvin M. Houghton was born, June 11, 1833, at Bangor, Maine. He came to the Pacific coast, by way of Panama, landing at San Francisco in 1849, and has been a resident of this state nearly 15 years.

His death which took place Sunday evening at 9:25 o'clock, January 19, was occasioned by Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Mr. Houghton at the time of his death was nearly 69 years of age, and beside his widow, leaves a stepson, Wm. R. Hurst, of Elk River Curry county, to mourn their bereavement.

Card of Thanks. In appreciation of the kind services and sympathy rendered me during the last sickness, death, and burial of my late husband, C. M.
