EDITORIAL.

The sentiment of Socialists in this section of the county appears to favor a ticket that will cover the state, congressional and legislative offices, but not the county offices.

Andrew Carnegie has been a success as a financier and holds a good opinion of himself. In an address at New York, a few days ago, among other things he said that he thought a fitting epitaph for himself would be: "Here lies a man who knew how to get around men much cleverer than himself."

Another old side tracked Isthmian canal route has been fished out of the rubbish by Senator Scott, of West Virginia, who is extolling its superiority, which it does not possess, over other routes. Only a short time ago the press of public opinion centered on the Nicaragua canal to an extent which indicated that congress might take favorable action, but the resources of the railroad octopus to delay had not been exhausted, and obstructions are in the field in full force.

Who are the Anarchists? Who are the anarchists? Not the Socialists because they are the advocates of the highest type of government.

The word "anarchist" is coming into prominent notice, and its meaning will be generally understood while the real anarchists will stand out clear and distinct to the public gaze if a few more judges take the bold and commendable course which Judge O'Neil Ryan, of St. Louis, did in regard to the bribery charges in connection St. Louis & Suburban Railway legislation. He declared the crime was a menace to civic and political life. He said as follows:

"No graver danger exists in our midst than this infamous method of robbing the people by corrupting their trusted representatives. It is a menace to our civic and political life. It is anarchy, for it strikes an insidious and deadly blow at government. It substitutes the debauching moneyed power of criminally responsible combinations and corporations, acting through their trusted agents and hirelings, and unscrupulous public officers, for the lawfully constituted authority vested by the people in the municipal legislative body and by it honestly and faithfully administered."

Anarchists infest the halls of congress. Their purpose is not to thrust the assassin's knife into the heart of their victim, but through bribery to kill the honesty of purpose in the legislators so that enactments can be passed granting special privileges by which these abettors of anarchy can despoil the people. Such anarchists are called lobbyists.

Every man who through bribery seeks to bring about inequality, or to avert justice, or to profit to the detriment of other persons belongs to the family of anarchists, as does also the man of great wealth who combine to increase their profits to the hurt and at the expense of the general public.

West & Trieb, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, Ohio. WALSHO, KINMAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio. But on the other hand, the briber is a worse menace to government. Besides being an anarchist himself, he is an anarchist tanker and desires to bring about conditions that breed and enthrone inequity which in order to be deposed generally brings genes of carriage and bloodshed.

All Birds Fear Mirrors.

"I learned a trick while in the Philippines in the matter of keeping birds out of fruit trees," volunteered a well known official of the postoffice department to a Star reporter. "It is simple, inexpensive and, as far as I could observe, practical. It consists in hanging a small mirror on the top limbs of the tree. There should be at least six inches of string to the mirror, so that it can swing about as it is blown by the wind. The flash of the mirror, it appears, scares the birds away. One or two 5 cent mirrors hung on a tree is sufficient, though, of course, three or four would be that much better. I was told that this method had worked in the Philippines successfully for many years and that the birds do not grow familiar with it as they do with a scarecrow. Since my return here I find that the mirror scare is not unknown here and that it has been in use by Michigan fruit growers for many years. I have tried it myself in a small way and it is amusing what a stir it creates among the birds."

Trust's Phenomenal Figures

J. P. Morgan's Pay Was One Hundred and Twenty nine Millions. From the Oregonian. New York—Some remarkable things are made public in the report of the billion-dollar steel trust. Among them are the earnings of the company, its surplus and the price paid for launching the corporation. J. P. Morgan and the underwriting syndicate for launching the trust received stock in the corporation to par value of $129,937,500. The corporation's surplus on the day the balance was struck was $174,344,298, and the dividends paid it the same time aggregated $41,980,706.

Morgan and company paid, in securities of the big trust, nearly $500,000,000 for the control of the Carnegie concern, whose plans at that time if carried out, would have made a war of the giants of the steel trade.

Dewett's Hard Luck.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The British pursuit of General Dewett has been successful to the extent that his last gun has been captured, and Commandant Wessels, one of his principal lieutenants, has been routed. General Kitchener sent this news in a dispatch from Pretoria, dated Tuesday, February 4, as follows: "Bing's column, while proceeding toward Liebenburgvlei, after a night march, attacked and routed a considerable force of the enemy under Commandant Wessels. We captured a 15 pounder and a pom-pom taken from Ferman's column and also a Boer pom-pom, which was the last gun Dewett had, and three wagons of ammunition, 150 horses and 100 mules. The Boer casualties were five men killed, six wounded and 27 men captured.

"Among the killed was Field Cornet Wessels. Among the prisoners is Captain Muller, of the Staats Artillery. The enemy was scattered. Our casualties were slight. "The national scouts, near Middleburg (Cape Colony) captured 13 prisoners. "Plumer, near Amersfoort (Transvaal), captured seven prisoners and 500 head of cattle. "General Gilbert Hamilton captured 32 prisoners."

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism.

"During the winter of 1898 I was lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. WHEELER, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Are Editors Slaves?

From the Columbus Herald. At a banquet of newspaper men, recently, Whiteley Reid, candidate for vice president on the ticket with James G. Blaine, and editor of the New York Tribune, a republican paper, spoke in part as follows: "You are all slaves. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dare express an honest opinion. If you express it, you know before hand that it would never appear in print. I am paid $150 a week for keeping honest opinions out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for doing similar things. If I should allow honest opinions to be printed in one issue of my paper, like Othello, before twenty four hours my occupation would be gone. The man who would be so foolish as to write his honest opinion would be out on the streets hunting another job. The business of the New York journalist is to distort the truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread, or for what is about the same thing, his salary. You know this and I know it; and what foolery to be toasting an independent press. We are tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are jumpingjacks. Our time, our talent, our lives, our possibilities, we are all property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."

How's This.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. P. A. WEINMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

March 30, 1901. Dear Sir:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago, my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the affected ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, P. A. WEINMAN, 205 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal advice free. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 556 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.
