EDITORIAL.

Ex-President Cleveland has again been heard from. He went duck-hunting.

Coos county Socialists should organize. The time is here when they should stand and be counted together.

A few days ago the Oregonian charged County Commissioner J. G. Mack, of Portland, with having sold carpets to the county and now it has a $50,000 libel suit on hand.

The Oregonian hit the bulls eye when it said, "If a begger defies arrest, we read him a lecture on the sacredness of the law. If a railroad president does it, he looks around for applause. Anarchy is the same in high places or low."

Bonapart was a great general but J. Pierpont Morgan is a greater one. King Edward or Emperor William can say, "My people" and proceed to devise means to tax large incomes out of their subject, but Morgan holds a grip upon a larger number of subjects whom he taxes with the greatest ease while the other fellows do the governing.

Fitzsimmons and Champion Jeffries are to meet again in the ring, the former having agreed to the terms of the latter. No person can point out anything of value that will accure to the human family by this brutish contest to see which is able to administer and endure the greater amount of punishment. Fighters, however, have found that there is money to be made by pandering to a vitiated, public taste, hence, they risk their lives and put up their persons to be bruised and beaten. It would seem that these brutal contests are a lingering effort to hold on to a barbarous past.

Senator Hoar wants the salaries of senators raised from $5,000 to $7,500 a year. At first thought this would seem to be about right as the dignity of the office might Warrant it, but on second thought, it would not only appear to be a waste of the people's money, but also a source of extra temptation to would be senators. The present salary is no impediment, to filling the upper branch of congress, as there are plenty of aspirants, and as these seekers after senatorial honors often pay out many thousands of dollars to secure the coveted prize, there is no telling to what extremes they would go for that extra $2,500. As a matter of economy to aspirants as well as the people, senators' salaries should be reduced rather than raised. Senator Hoar must have lost his reckoning.

Oregonian: Great Britain and Japan want peace, and for that purpose they have joined fleets and armies. Russia wants peace, and to that end, she announces, her army and navy are always ready. Great Britain and Japan want the integrity of China and the independence of Corea. Russia also desires the independence of Corea and the integrity of China. Where all are so anxious for the same result, it is a pity to maintain such costly armaments of offense.

Oregonian: Under Senator Hoar's bill advancing the pay of members of Congress the Vice President and the Speaker of the House would be paid $15,000, instead of $8000, and Senators and Representatives would be paid $7500 instead $5000. The increase takes effect as soon as the bill becomes a law. The enactment of this measure would take more than a million of dollars from the public Treasury, and its passage is sure to be followed by increased salaries for Cabinet Ministers, for if Congressmen need an increase of pay on the score of the expense of living at Washington, Cabinet Ministers equally demand it, and with this advance the whole civil list will ask for an increase of salary, as well as the military and naval establishments. Fully half of the Congressman's time is his own, and he can follow his private employment to some extent while a member of Congress. The increase famous in political history as the "salary grab" of 1873 was from $5000 to $7500 and was retroactive. That increase stood for ten months, but was repealed in January, 1874. This bill of Senator Hoar ought not to become a law.

A recognized authority—The Weekly Oregonian.

A Most Unjust Policy.

New York Times.

The ways and means committee have just determined to repeal internal revenue taxes to the amount of $68,000,000, and the tax on tea, some $9,000,000 more, while refusing the slightest reduction of the purely protective and discriminating tax on sugar and on tobacco for the products of Cuba. It is a very old trick. It was invented at the close of the civil war, when it gave birth to all our tariff abominations of the worst sort. During the war import taxes had very properly been put on goods coming into competition with native goods that had been heavily taxed for internal revenue. It would have been grossly unfair to load our manufacturers with taxes and leave their competitors free of taxation. The import duties were intended to be, and in the main, they were, merely an offset to the internal taxes. Then the internal taxeswere taken off and the heavy burden of the import taxes was left untouched. The resorces of the Treasury were substantially exhausted, and any reform of the import duties became exceedingly difficult.

The plan today is strikingly similar. The estimated surplus for the year is in round numbers $100,000,000. More than three quarters of it is wiped out by the repeal of the so-called war taxes. What remains will give little opportunity for the reduction of the tariff. The taxes removed are neither burdensome nor difficult to collect. They have the rare merit of all going into the Treasury. They are paid once for all, and they give no chance for oppressing the consumers. Certainly there should be a reduction of our needlessly high revenue. But with the exception of the tax on tea—as to which there is room for difference of opinion—the taxes now to be taken off are not the ones we should remit. The reduction should be in the tariff taxes, which impede the advance of American industry, check the extension of foreign trade, and unjustly injure the American consumer. It is especially outrageous that the party in power should take this means of perpetuating the wrongful tariff taxes at the moment when the highest consideration of duty and of enlightened expediency demand that trade with Cuba be made possible, in order that the people of the island may attain freedom with security and prosperity.

The motto of the Republicans in the House is clearly: "Millions for the Trusts; not one cent for honor."

AROUND THE COUNTY.

From the Myrtle Point Enterprise.

C. W. Hall left Wednesday for San Francisco. He will return in a short time and will at once put in a mill at this place and will commence to saw myrtle timber for shipment to San Francisco and other places to be used in the manufacture of fine furniture and fancy wood work. The mill will mean much for this section of the county.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Houser, who reside at Bridge, on the Middle Fork, died very peculiar deaths last Saturday night. They were suddenly taken ill and in a few hours the younger child, about one year old, died, the other child, aged four years, living but a few hours after. The cause of death is not known but it is supposed to have been caused by some kind of poisoning though a thorough search failed to shed any light on the supposition as no poison of any kind could be found about the place. Another child of Mr. and Mrs. Houser's has been very low but will probably recover.

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism.

"During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. WHEELER, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Urban Stupidity.

"Henry," said Uncle Amos from Upcreek, who was visiting his city nephew, "who's that man in the house on the other side of the street? Every morning he stands in front of a window an' shaves himself. He's done it now for three days hand running."

"I suppose that he has done it every morning for the last ten years, uncle," replied Henry.

"Has he lived there all that time?"

"Yes and longer than that, for all I know. I've been here only ten years myself."

"Who is he?"

"I don't know."

"What does he foller?"

"I haven't the slightest idea, uncle."

Uncle Amos put on his hat and went out.

In an hour or two he returned.

"Henry," he said, "that chap's name is Horton. He runs an insurance office down town. He's worth about $27,000, own that house an' lot, belongs to the Presbyterian church, has three boys an' one girl, an' he's forty six years old. I've found out more about him in an hour than you have in ten years. Blamed if I don't believe livin' in the city makes people stupid."—Chicago Tribune.

Exchange: Miss Murray, daughter of a wealthy Missouri farmer, is soon to wed Edward Beaupre, the "Cowboy Giant," of Helena, Montana. Miss Murry stands 8 feet 1 inch tall and weighs something over 400 pounds; Beaupre is 8 feet tall and tips the beam at 367 pounds. It is said that the father of this female "sky-scraper" has been trying for some time to induce some one to marry the girl, offering a home and liberal expense money. The young couple has our blessing and pending further developments the choir will please sing "What Shall The Harvest Be?"

Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup. —*Camden (S. C.) ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
