Try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, the best physic. For sale by C. Y. Lowe. Mrs. Minnie Bryan opened up a term of public school in the Two mile district last Monday morning. The Foresters have all arrangements completed for their ball Saturday and guarantee a delightful time. Rev. George Gillespie has gone to look after his Curry county charges and will be absent from Bandon for some weeks. When you want a separator buy a De Laval; you take no risk; they are the best. You get full value for your money. The Foresters are anticipating a good time Saturday evening. Large delegations will be present from the Upper River. Frank Holman and A. G. Erickson succeeded in raising an old snaken root or stump last Monday, which had lodged above Ross's wharf. There was a dance in R. W. Ballard's hall Saturday night, at which Bandon was well represented, some twenty persons having attended from here. Supervisor Record had a force of men at work, this week, finishing up planking on the county road, there being a few hundred feet on the Bandon end to plank. Adam Pershaker was doing business in town Monday. He expects the new schooner which is under way at San Francisco to be finished and here ready to load in June. Easter passed away rather pleasantly this year, there being no disagreeable weather closely connected with it, except three days of cold northwest wind which preceded it. W. W. Hayes and wife who have been visiting here for nearly a fortnight left Monday for Coquille City. Mr. Hayes does not intend to return again to Libby, but will locate elsewhere. The directors of the Coquille school district settled with Mrs. Minnie Bryan and Miss Florence Twombly in full for the time school was closed during the quarantine. The matter was settled without being taken into court. The steamer Mandalay went to sea Sunday morning about three o'clock. Her passenger list comprised the following names: Mrs. F. E. Dyer, Miss Cordelia Porter, Captain Eaton, John Blacklock, Mr. Ronso and a Chinaman. The latter had been doing the cooking on the bark Baroda. Frank J. Lowe is rustling to secure a shipyard on the Coquille with apparently good success. There seems little doubt of the project maturing, and if the construction of a vessel is once secured, the yard will be established. It will be located opposite Parkersburg on J. D. Lowe's place. A derelict schooner discovered, bottom side up, in Barclay sound, last week, proved to be the Amethyst. The Amethyst was commanded by Captain L. W. Zimmerman, and had sailed for the Coquille River some 63 days prior to her discovery. She carried besides the captain, three sailors. The entire crew is supposed to have been lost. "A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Wm. Howell of Coquille City was looking around town Monday. A. Forsnes, one of Bear creek's prominent loggers was in town Thursday. E. B. Sypher, a resident of Floras creek, was doing business in Bandon last week. White Plymouth Rock Eggs—13 for one dollar. Call on or address Jos. Hare, Hare, Ore. William Humbert of Marshfield came over last Saturday and remained in town over night. W. V. Cope of Floras creek was in town Monday night having had business which called him this way. See notice of midnight supper in another column. You can always get a square meal at the O K Restaurant. Mrs. H. Neely arrived in town Monday evening on her way home to Port Orford, from a visit to friends in Myrtle Point. Mrs. J. B. Gross lost a portion of her poultry the other night and is wondering who had a feast. Her flock was seven fowls short she says. There has been some change in W. C. Sanderson's store here, Fred Sanderson of Coquille City having acquired an interest in the business. The De Laval Cream Separator is used in all counties and are recognized as the superior of all machines made for separating cream from milk. The ninth annual outing of the Mazama Mountain Chambers will be made to Mount Adams, Washington, the start being made from Portland July 15. S. Mandy brought a scow load of maple timber down the river last Saturday which will be used at the Broomhandle mill. The mill started up again last week. Mrs. F. E. Dyer took passage on the steamer Mandalay, last Sunday morning, to visit relatives in San Francisco. She was accompanied by Cordelia Porter. The visit will be extended over a term of five or six weeks, perhaps more. The doctors who attended President McKinley during the week prior to his death have handed their bill into congress through Senator Hanna. There were six of them and they only want $50,000 for their services or something over a thousand dollars a day each. The Latter Day Saints' meeting, Sunday evening, drew a full house, some having to go away for want of room. Comment from many persons gives encouragement to the members of this branch to press forward in their effort to raise the standard of right higher. The wall of prejudice that has juttied up squarely against this organization here is giving away. The next meeting of the Religio occurs Sunday evening April 15th. Delegates from this section to the County Democratic Convention, at Marshfield, began to make their way there Tuesday, W. C. Sanderson, and J. D. Lowe, of this precinct, and C. D. Stewart of Fourmile, leaving for the scene of action on that day. Yesterday morning saw the rest of the delegates on their way there except Charles Loretz who sent his proxy. Those who went yesterday were A. G. Hoyt, Chris Rasmussen and F. L. Lowe. It begins to dawn that Bandon will engage in the baseball business this season and arrangements are under way looking toward that purpose. A meeting was held last Monday night and preliminary arrangements instituted. Officers were elected to further the project, but development has not advanced sufficient to give details this week, but we are promised definite and complete information in our next issue. Baseball is rather exciting amusement and if Bandon takes hold she will do so with a will, and she will not be inclined to come out without honors in the race. Indications are that Coos county will have a lively league this season. J. C. Thurman, formerly of Coquille seems to have batted several of our citizens here and then stowed himself away on the steamer Mandalay and left the state for California. He was under promise to work for Peter Nelson in the blacksmith shop in the stead of W. Fields who has resigned his position there to go on a farm, but failed to show up on Monday morning, the time set for his appearance at the shop. It has since developed that he left some one who went his security at Coquille to pay a debt of $20 there, while at this place he borrowed $10 from one party with whom he had formerly had dealings and who had confidence in him, while of another party he obtained $5, and besides this he left a couple of week's board unpaid.

Samuel Wilson of Port Orford was in town Friday. The last few days have had a beneficial effect upon the roads. E. C. Peck came up Wednesday evening from the Sixes mines. Fred Sanderson will move his family from Coquille to Bandon soon. Fred Schetter of Empire City was reported to be quite ill last Friday. W. H. McPherson of Marshfield was doing business in town yesterday evening. BONS.—At Bandon, March 30, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. Norris Thrush a daughter. The steamer Mandalay will be due here about Monday or Tuesday of next week. A postoffice has been established at Corbin City, Curry county. It went into commission April 1st. The marshal of Cottage Grove was arrested and placed under $500 bonds. He is charged with stealing $12.50 out of a sick man's pocket. J. J. Bryan who is now in the employ of A. Shillings, of San Francisco was in town over Sunday interviewing our merchants with the result that he took a good many orders for goods. A. Smyth Wiley, of Bills creek, was in town yesterday to make some final arrangements in the transfer of his Bills creek property, which he has disposed of to John L. Kronenberg of Parkersburg. H. A. Cox and wife who left here last week on their way to Idaho, got away from Marshfield Monday on the steamer Alliance. Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. H. Lockwood and Miss Florida Fahy were passengers on the same boat. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Giles of Myrtle Point have been spending the week in town visiting their daughter, Mrs. Charles Stewart. Mrs. Giles had a stock of millinery and sea shells with her and has been doing considerable business in her line. Rumor has it that M. R. Lee will inaugurate considerable change in the appearance in the warehouse front on first street and that it will soon take on a business look aspect. Let the good work go on as it is improvement that helps a town out. What with baseball and one thing and another Bandon is likely to develop more life this season than it has shown for some time past. Now comes the announcement that arrangements have been completed by which the band will give a street concert each Saturday evening, weather permitting, commencing Saturday evening April 5th. From what the Coast Mail says there is a probability that the Southern Oregon company may sell out and another company take hold. Empire real estate is said to be looking up as a result of the probable change. Empire is a finely located town and it is to be hoped that some change will take place which will infuse new life into its business and start it on the up grade again. Now that the Democrats have made up their ticket it is to be expected that the political battle will begin to warm up. Although there is to be four tickets in the field the fight, this year will be between the Democrats and Republicans and on each party have generally nominated prominent and able men for office, the fight will be lively and if the Democrats are going to make a guess at the result it would, from present indications, say that it would be mixed.

Gas Berg's Body Examined.

The following from the Port Orford Tribune clears up the mystery of Gas Berg's death: A second and careful investigation of the Gas Berg case, at Pistol River, places at rest the suspicions of foul play, and confirms the correctness of the verdict of snitch rendered by the first jury, the misleading reports and suspicions having originated, in the main, by the failure of the first jury and attending physician to make a thorough examination of the body, and by the mysterious disappearance of Joe Stewart from the neighborhood coincident with the finding of Berg's body. Last week a second inquest was held, and an autopsy, at which Dr. Caldwell officiated, developed the fact that there were no bullets in the body. Dr. Caldwell furnishes as the following statement of facts: "A bullet hole through left arm, at junction of upper and middle and upper and middle third, entering at inner side of arm. 2. That a bullet had entered left side between seventh and eighth ribs, three inches to left of sternum, ranging upward and forward, cutting off the seventh, sixth and fifth ribs, passing out between the fourth and fifth ribs. Death being due to neglect and after effects of wounds." The locality of the wounds and the upward range of the bullets indicated plainly that they were self inflicted, by a rifle in the hands of deceased. There were also powder burns around the wounds. There were numerous evidences of Berg having lived several days after the wounds were inflicted. He had walked around outside, had built a fire and had cooked, blood being found on various articles he had handled. There was no doubt in the mind of every one present last week that the wounds were self inflicted, but that, making a bad job of it the would-be suicide's nerve failed him and he repented, but was unable to dress his wounds and died from want of proper care. It was the opinion of those present that he lived four or five days after shooting himself. Although Stewart is cleared of all suspicion, the cause of his disappearance still remains a mystery.
