EDITORIAL.

Socialism realized will bring a degree of prosperity and secusity to a nation which no other form of government can produce.

From the charges that are coming up in regard to the purchase of the Danish West Indies it would appear that not all the rogues are in jail yet, but that some of them are in congress.

Socialism is easily understood and must obtain in the perfection of government, but most persons have been chasing the rainbow of hope so long under the competitive system, to find the mythical pot of gold, that they have had no time to look around to see where their interests lie.

Men who go to work with dull tools when they have every faciilty with which to sharpen them are considered fools. What more can be said of boys, girls, men or women who drift along with the current of humanity, and fail to use their mental powers to elevate them into a higher sphere of life where they become wise and honored.

For what is your mind given to you? To think. For what was the power to reason given? To make decision. Then in the happy use of these gifts it is our privilege to debate all propositions from the highest source of information available and make our decisions according to our best judgment of what will prove best in the end. He who does less than this fails to use his God given talents and fails in his duty.

Now comes the information that through protection many manufacturers are receiving benefits that they do not nor never did need. This is what is called obtaining money under false pretense, and were the criminals common individuals there would be an inquiry instigated, but as it is, this kind of theft takes on a partisan nature, and is abetted by a horde of presons who seem to live on a delusion that some how or other their ship will sail into harbor some bright day in the future.

Another investigation will be made in congress. Denmark's agent, in the Danish West India transaction, says he had to use $500,000 to buy congressmen in accomplishing the sale of the property to the United States, and the chargeas brought up in congress charges is that parties were bribed to help make the sale. It is to be hoped that there is no ground for the charge, yet it is but a natural consequence of a system wherein men's personal interests outweigh their collective interests. If social interests were equal there would be no cause to accept a bribe, but where acquisition, of property for self, is the first consideration, it requires a man of sterling character to withstand the temptation to gain by the acceptance of a bribe.

Portland Telegram: The gang of looters of the Cuban postal funds have been properly convicted and sentenced at last. Neeley gets ten years' imprisonment and is fined $56,701; Estes and Rathbone—the latter a pet worker for Senator Hanna—are sentenced to ten years and fines of over $35,000 each. Now let these sentences be promptly and surely executed, and no pardons granted, and other trusted public servants will be careful how they handle public moneys.

Direct Legislation by Speaker Henderson.

Hon. David B. Henderson, now speaker of the House of Representatives, when he was chairman of the Judiciary Committee, declared in favor of the principle of Initiative and Referendum, as follows:

"It would be a great advantage to a public man if expressions on measures could be had from the people, and in a general way I can say, without hesitation, that any plan which will enable the people to know what they are thinking; in other words, to let A know what B, C and D believe cannot do otherwise than good, and above all, an intelligent expression of the mass of the voters on any and all leading questions would be of great value to public servants. On these two leading propositions—an untrammeled ballot and the free, intelligent expression of the people—I will ever be found favoring both, and can be so quoted. Whatever is done should permit the fullest discussion before the vote is taken, so that the citizens may compare notes fully and the questions discussed may enter into the campaigns among the people."

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the stomach and bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. After Seventy Five years.

A visit to the old home is one of the most delightful experiences of old age. In New England more and more has been made each year of the feeling for the old homestead, and it is only natural that the "old home" paper, The Youth's Companion, should participate in this renewal of "old home" acquaintances.

Last week the publishers of The Youth's Companion enjoyed a visit from one of their seventy-five year subscribers, Mr. R. W. Peabody of Chicago, now ninety-one years old, who had been spending a few weeks in New England. He is one of the subscribers on record who has taken The Youth Companion continuously since its first issue, April 17, 1827. The letter in which he sent his original subscription was one of the first he ever wrote. Through young manhood, maturity and old age, through times of war and times of peace, in New England and in the West, through all the last seventy-five years of his life, his one constant companion has been the old Youth's Companion.

The growth of The Companion itself from the first small four page issues to the great family paper of the present is merely typical of the growth of the country during Mr. Peabody's lifetime. The wonderful triumphs of steam, and electricity; the great inventions that made the nineteenth century what it was, nearly all occurred in the period through which Mr. Peabody and The Youth's Companion have passed side by side.

The regard Mr. Peabody holds for the paper is not because of its age, but because the paper, although the same in purpose in its last issue as in that of seventy-five years ago, has kept pace with all the extraordinary developments of these three generations, and instead of growing old has grown young in enterprise, in originality, and in the ability to know and supply the literary wants of the American family.

Coast Mail: George Hall, who recently returned from the gold fields near Eckley, brought with him a number of coarse nuggets from the claim he sold about a month ago. Among the collection are two very large nuggets weighing one oz., and three-quarters of an ounce, respectively, and valued at $18.75 and $14.11. The claim which produced these nuggets and in which Mr. Hall still holds an interest is situated on Poverty creek, near Salmon mountain and is considered one of the most valuable claims in that section.

Good For Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Diphtheria Cure.

The following recipe is from the Scientific American and should be cut out and pasted in your scrap book where you can find it if you need it:

At the first indication of diphtheria in the throat make the room close, then take a teacup and pour into it an equal quantity of turpentine and tar then hold the cup over the fire so as to fill the room with the fumes. The patient inhaling the fumes will cough out the membraneous matter and diphtheria will pass off. The fumes of tar and turpentine loosen the throat and thus afford the relief that has baffled the skill of the physicians.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.
For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watchmaker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me of chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the result.' For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Threatens to Veto Irrigation Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(Special to The Evening Telegram.)—The President today informed Senator Hansbrough and Representatives Moody, of Oregon; Metcalf, of California, and Reeder, of Kansas, that he would veto the irrigation bill if it passed with section 8, which provides for the state control of reservoirs and ditches. The President demands straight Government ownership and control. He was told that the constitutions of most of the irrigation states contained provisions for state control, and that the Government accepted these constitutions when the states were admitted. He said that made no difference, and that the section must come out. This means that if the bill passes without this section, the President will delay the beginning of irrigation work in these states until they consent to change their constitutions.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
