EDITORIAL

Next Monday is election day, and whether the Republicans or Democrats win, it will not effect your interests to any perceptible degree during the next two years unless you have wagered upon the result. Both parties stand for a continuance of a state which breeds inequality, runs on slavery. If you would vote in your own interest, for equal opportunity and for the emancipation and happiness of the human race, vote for the Socialist system which is represented by the Socialist candidates.

The Oregon election is attracting much attention just now and Mark Hanna is said to be very desirous of a Republican victory, as it is thought that such result will be beneficial to his ship subsidy bill. Said bill is but another abominable graft that Hanna and his associates wish to fasten upon the public, but the mind that peers beyond present associations for the realization of equitable conditions, is well aware that the greater the number of these iniquitous measures fastened upon the public the sooner will come the time when the people will understand that they are being fleeced and will bring about a business revolution that will result in a better social system.

The United States is the most wealthy country on the face of the earth so far as natural resources are concerned, and it covers a territory embracing all the climates of the world. One would think that with this prodigious wealth, its inhabitants should be satisfied, but they are not. From the rush and hurry to market all these resources and turn them into gold, one can but question the sanity of the operators. These resources would prove sufficient for the use of citizens of this country for ages untold, but the present prospect points to a time when the country will be impoverished because of this hasty desire to dispose of our wealth of natural treasures.

Socialists should talk to themselves thus: What have I to gain by voting for a friend in either the Democratic or Republican ranks? My friend upholds a system which is breeding in equality, strife, anarchy and in the end ruin. What he wishes to realize is the reward of office to help him live for the next two years. What will I get for my loyalty to my friend? Nothing, and if I vote for him I will have proved false to the principles I advocate and I will have thrown my influence against my conviction and lost my self esteem, and no longer deserve respectful consideration by my fellow creatures. Vote for that which you want; that which will give you equal opportunity.

The Town Election.

TOWN ELECTION, BANDON, COUNTY OF COOS, STATE OF OREGON,
MAY 26, 1902.

Last Monday was the annual election day in the town of Bandon, there being a board consisting of a recorder, a marshal and five councilmen to choose.

There was considerable interest displayed in the choice of men to fill the offices, but perhaps the greatest interest centered on the choice of men for marshal there being a strong desire on the part of many voters to have a change and the result was the election of Mr. Blackerby.

An inspection of the result as given below will give an idea of the interest taken in the election and the strong opposition. This is more clear when it is understood that the two persons receiving the lowest number of votes did not desire a position on the board.

The star indicates the successful candidates.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but could not stand. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Do Your Duty.

To insure the adoption of the Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution it must have more than forty-five thousand votes even if not one vote is cast against it. Do not forget to mark your ballot on this question.

Let every man who favors more direct legislation in Oregon be sure to vote for the Initiative and Referendum amendment and remind his neighbors to mark their ballots. A blank ballot may be counted against it the same as though it was marked no.

The rule is almost universal that when a measure is submitted to the people it must have only a majority of those who vote on the question. But the constitution of Oregon is peculiar and it is quite possible that before any amendment can be adopted a majority of all the voters must vote yes even if not one votes no. Therefore it is important that every friend of the Initiative and Referendum amendment shall vote.

If the proposed Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution shall be defeated by stay at homes and careless voters neglecting to mark their ballots, while a very large majority of those who do vote on the question vote in its favor, it will greatly intensify the demand for a constitutional convention.

A constitutional convention and a new constitution is one of the most costly events in the life of a State. This is not only because of the agitation and disturbance of business, but also because of the complete changes commonly made in the organic law, and the destruction of a large part of the state laws settled by the Courts. If the people understood that in practice it is not possible to amend the constitution of Oregon it will be impossible to long escape a constitutional convention. Therefore it is very important that every man who does not want the dangers and agitation of such a convention should not only vote but work for the adoption of the proposed Initiative and Referendum amendment.

The proposed Initiative and Referendum amendment to the constitution is very simple. It does not abolish the legislature, but it does make the whole body of voters a supreme legislative body. It gives about five thousand voters power to refer to the people a bill passed by the legislature, and it gives the same power to the legislature. It gives about eight thousand voters the same power to introduce a measure before the people for their vote that one Senator or one Representative has to introduce a bill in the legislature. Any proposed law submitted to the people by the legislature or by petition must have a majority vote of the people before it is adopted. There are no special elections on laws unless ordered by the legislature. There is no expense to the tax payers, because the petitioners must pay all the expenses of their petition. The amendment gives a majority of the people power to make any law independent of the legislature, and to veto or repeal any act of the legislature.

"I am not much of a mathematician," said the cigarette, "but I can add to a man's nervous troubles, I can subtract from his physical energy, I can multiply his aches and pains, I can divide his mental powers, I can take interest from his work and discount his chances for success."

In Sweden, writes an American traveler, the saloons are closed on Saturday—pay day—while the savings banks are kept open until midnight. No government can force a man to save his money, but at least, this Swedish system encourages him to deposit it where it will draw better interest than a headache.

Not Reforming Drunkards.

The time is coming very fast indeed, it has already arrived in our commercial life—when a young man who has habits of intemperance is narrowing very rapidly the possible range of openings in which he may make a living.

"A young man who had lost his position in a railroad office," says Mr. Chas. M. Sheldon, "came to me and begged that I would use my influence to have him taken back by the superintendent of the division. He frankly confessed that he had been drunk and was unable to report for duty one day, but the next morning he was at his desk. When he appeared he received his dismissal. He acknowledged his fault and promised the superintendent it would never occur again, offering to let the road take his wages and pay them to his aged father and mother. He pleaded that it was his first offence."

I went with an influential citizen to the head of the department where the young man had been employed, and we stated his case and pleaded for a second trial, but the superintendent simply said: "This railroad is not in the business of reforming drunkards or reclaiming young men. Past experience has taught us that it is useless for us to take young men back in this way."

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began ringing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
