Perkins and wife, Captain Peterson, E. O. Bjorkquist, and one Chinaman.

Next Sunday the Bandon and Coquille baseball teams will give exhibitions of their skill on the Bandon diamond. The Coquille team has been unfortunate in the two games it played with the Marshfield team, but it has not lost confidence and will play the home team here next Sunday fully expecting to carry off a victory. Although Bandon has beaten the Marshfielders twice, Coquille and Bandon has not yet crossed bats, as the first league game which was to have been played between the Bandon and Coquille teams had to be postponed because of bad weather. A lively game is in anticipation.

Dr. Culin, of Coquille, dropped dead, at Portland this week.

The Ladies' Aid Society have postponed their Strawberry festival. J. Henry Schroeder's sbingletoill, at Arago, burned down last Saturday night week. Fire supposed to be incendiary.

William Page, of Myrtle Point, was doing Bandon yesterday. Will is a jolly Page, not to the king, but all the way from Alaska.

Harvey Smith was over from Empire last Saturday. He is employed aboard the Baroda and will go to San Francisco on her, and return by steamer.

At the annual school meeting last Monday Elbert Dyer was elected Director for the ensuing three years, and Donald Charleson was re-elected clerk. The attendance was small.

The steamer Favorite lost a blade off her wheel Tuesday and Captain Leneve brought the Rita down yesterday in place of the Favorite which will be on her route in a day or two.

The captain of the Rita informed us yesterday, that there would be seventeen thousand, seventeen hundred and seventy six people down the river on the excursion next Sunday. It is a big statement but as he is the giant steamboat captain we did not contradict him.

Mr. King, chief engineer on the Mandalay received a fall on the up trip by which three of his ribs were fractured. He was sitting on the after hatch and the fall was caused by a lurch of the vessel which threw him across the pipe which secures one of the rudder chains.

MATCH FACTORY.—Bandon is to have a match factory. A building is now being prepared for that purpose and the factory will be in operation in about two weeks. This enterprise will give about a dozen more laborers work in the town and quite an increase in the payroll of labor here.

R. E. L. Bedillion and Charles Lorenz, gave the Bandon baseball team and the Fire Department band, an excellent supper Tuesday evening. Oysters, strawberries and cream with an abundance of other choice edibles constituted the bill of fare. The supper was given the ball players in honor of their victory over the Marshfield team Sunday, and the band having turned out on the return of the boat to receive the conquering heroes was included in the number invited to the feast. The hosts were big hearted in the spread, but the guests were—well they did justice to the occasion.

Foot Hurt.—Captain Batchelder received an ugly fall while below, last trip, by which he received severe injury, to his right leg at the ankle and also injured his right hand. He went up on the coal bunker, at Oakland to see how much room there was for storing coal, and an insecure plank let him fall into the bunker a distance of about 20 feet. A plank fell on his ankle, and he received a cut on his hand which was also entered by a sliver. His ankle has kept him confined to his bunk, most of the time since. The first mate also met with trouble as some lumber that was being unloaded fell upon his foot smashing it severely.

Labor Unions Organizing. L. E. Dole, district organizer for Coos county, of the American Federation of Labor, was in Bandon the latter part of last week, organizing Labor Unions. He organized a union of mill workers including laborers in the mills below Riverton on 10 charter members and headquarters at Bandon. On Friday morning he organized a Long-shoremen's Union here with 17 charter members. The initiation fee in either union will be $1 until the charters are received. Applications should be made to the respective secretaries.

Mr. Dole went to Coquille Friday to effect an organization there in the evening, and on Saturday evening he had an engagement at Marshfield to organize an Engineer's Union.

Mr. Dole gave Bandon credit for showing more readiness to organize, and a better disposition in the matter than any place he had visited. It is certainly a thing of importance that organization of labor is reaching out into the country, and that unions are being effected in towns and villages. Heretofore only the cities and larger towns have been interested, but now it appears from the way organization is being effected that there is a plan being carried into effect to organize labor everywhere. If such is the plan and it is carried into effect it will have a far-reaching effect, and capital as represented by the trust magnates may yet have to respect its claims.

Baseball—Fourth Game

Last Sunday the Coos County League Leaders, accompanied by a band of 100 rosters and brimming over with confidence went forth to do battle with the Marshfield Braves on their own batiwick. The Marshfielders headed by their doughty captain, Hiram Wright, made a bold stand but were unable to withstand the fierce onslaughts hurled at them by the hosts of Bandon.

The consensus of opinion before the game was that Marshfield would be victorious on their home grounds, but at the game's conclusion the scalps of Hi Wright and his colleagues were dangling from the turrets of Bandon's warriors to the tune of 6 to 3.

The game opened rather inauspiciously for Bandon. McKane, their hard hitting shortstop, struck out. Hanrahan singled and immediately stole second. Burrows beat out a slow hit to third. Page connected with one of Hi's pet twisters for a single, scoring Hanrahan and advancing Burrows to third. C. Hunt hit to short and Burrows was nailed at the plate. Walker then retired the side. Marshfield evened up the score in their half. Snyder hit to the pitcher and was retired at first. Philbrick singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Walker's return of Ferry's long fly. Wright singled but perished on the first cushion as Denning perforated the atmosphere in three vain efforts to connect with Hanrahan's elusive delivery. There was no more scoring until the last half of the third when the loose fielding of the Bandon team enabled Marshfield to send two men across the rubber. Bandon made one in the fourth making the score read 3 to 2. The fifth and sixth innings were unproductive of runs on either side, but in the seventh with men on second and third and two down, Burrows by a pretty single to the right garden, scored both runners, Bandon assuming the lead, score 4 to 3.

Up to this Wright wore a confident smile, but seeing defeat was inevitable, a ghastly grin overspread his features and his massive frame quivered in the throes of defeat. In their half of the seventh Marshfield went out in one two three order. Bandon by bunting three hits, added two to their score in the eighth. After two hands were gone in the eighth Marshfield succeeded in filling the bases. The suspense at this time was terrible to contemplate as Snyder, the heavy hitting backstop marched to the plate with blood in his eye. At this stage of the game Hanrahan became very nervous. He went to the Bandon bench and after partaking of a few "speed tablets" it was noticed that his step was more elastic and his energy and vigor renewed. With two strikes on Snyder he hit a short fly which was easily captured by Cory Hunt retiring the side. Bandon failed to score in her half of the ninth. Marshfield came to bat in the last inning with a "never say die" spirit on her face, but Hanrahan was equal to the occasion and the side retired in one two three order. This ended the game. The victors on their return home were greeted with sweet strains of music furnished through the courtesy of the Bandon Fire Department Band.

Baseball Excursion.

Sunday's ball game will call an immense crowd of people to Bandon. Marshfield will turn out and Myrtle Point and Coquille, and in fact all points on the river will be represented, while the country south will turn out a goodly number.

The Bandon and Coquille teams will contend for the victory. The Bandon team needs this game as it championship for the pennant, while the Coquille team having been defeated in both games in which it played, needs the game very much in order to have a show for the pennant. The steamers Dispatch, Favorite, Rita and Echo will bring excursionists down the river, and the Welcome will come also if needed to handle the crowd.

will give them a long leverage for the 4th Of July.

Committees are busy on program Particulars next week.
