EDITORIAL

What is the difference between a growler and a thinker? The first finds fault, the other finds the remedy.

The tune "Dixie" is said to be having a run in China. The natives learned it from the bands of warships. Dixie is a globe trotter.

New Jersey the home of trusts and corporations, had a strike riot at Paterson last week. It is beginning to harvest the crop it has sown.

Street Car employees in Sheboygan, Wisconsin have struck for an increase in wages. The conductors want fourteen cents and the motormen want twelve cents an hour.

The largest vote cast for any of the Socialist candidates for state officers was for C. W. Barzee, for Secretary of State, who received 5576 votes.

There is to be a battle royal between giants. The world, an interested spectator, can look on while it awaits the result.

In case of fire if the burning articles are at once splashed with a solution of salt and nitrate of ammonia an incombustible coating is formed.

Congress has sat down upon President Roosevelt on the Cuban reciprocity business, but the latter is not easily discouraged.

Should smoke fill the room, remember that it goes first to the top of the room and then to the floor.

Capital Journal: A genuine "man without a country" is the "Chinese who recently tried to enter New Orleans from Nicaragua."

How's This? We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years.

Workmanship up to date in anything in my line. Next Door to Postoffice.

Republican View Of Tariff Revision

The Republican Congressional Convention of the Eleventh Wisconsin District adopted the following as one of the planks of its platform:

"That many of the industries of this country have outgrown the need of a protective tariff is made evident by the fact that the American manufacturer has entered the markets of the world and is successfully competing with the manufacturers of all other countries."

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkzeitung.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting takes place Tuesday, at 3 P. M., the residence of Mrs. J. S. Tilton.

Clippings from the Young Crusader. At the Newport training station 300 of the 800 boys between the ages of fourteen and seventeen wear naval temperance buttons.

The government of New South Wales has agreed to have temperance wall-sheets hung up in the elementary schools.

Medicine composed of twenty-three per cent or more of alcohol cannot legally be sold in the state of Maine.

The French Minister of Instruction requires that special teaching showing the evils of intemperance be given in the schools.

For sixty-eight years a temperance organization of senators and representatives known as the Congressional Temperance Society has been in operation in Washington.

The Manitoba prohibition act, which has been declared constitutional by the highest court, is an attempt not only to regulate the sale of liquor but also to prevent its use.

In the interest of public morals the Governor General of Moscow has issued a decree prohibiting the drinking of vodka in the streets or in any public place.

The young women of Rockford, Ill., have organized a social boycott against the young men who smoke cigars, visit the races and indulge in beer or other intoxicants.

At the last dinner of the National Business League the cigar was ruled off the menu.

This is coronation week in London, and as coronations have been long and tedious, Londoners are making a big show of it.

Appeal to Reason: How foolish were the British to have wasted so many men and money to conquer the Afrikander.
