EDITORIAL.

Reports from convicts Tracy and Merrill indicate that they appear and disappear at leasure, and from the numerous thefts and holdups they are reported to have been engaged in one would judge that their wants ought to be well supplied.

Rathbone who has been pardoned out of prison in Cuba, where he had been incarcerated for complicity in postoffice frauds, is importuning Congress for an investigation. Rathbone was a witness before a commission at Washington some six years ago when one Marcus A. Hanna was charged with having bribed Ohio legislators, and his knowledge of the whitewashing process political influence can accomplish has induced him to apply to Congress for a character.

Time swings rapidly along and has reached a period when even the prodigious obstructionists in Congress had to move and they have chosen the Panama Canal route. If scientific reports in regard to this route are true, this choice will prove the greatest strategy in obstruction that the world has yet seen. The route has been pronounced impracticable, and if this is so, it means not only delay in constructing an Isthmian canal, for at least years to come, but it means that the American people will be taxed to construct an impossibility.

The Populist party in Oregon is gone. It has moved on in the line of progression and is anchored in Socialism, the acme of government. The Populist party sacrificed itself to unite the reform parties, but failing in this, its advanced thinkers, many of whom were Socialists before the party sprang into existence, have gone to Socialism, pure and simple, as the grand bulwark behind which to do battle for complete justice to man—whether laborers or capitalists, as Socialism holds nothing within its confines except that which is right. It purposes to draw the line where one man's rights end, and another person's rights begin. However, Populism has left a momento by which it will be remembered, and that souvenir is the adoption of the Ititiative and Referendum in Oregon.

Pardoned the Rascals Out.

The custom of turning rogues free is an old one, but that it is a wise one doeth not yet appear. It is a well established fact, that in fruit or vegetables, if one begins to decay unless it is separated from those that are sound it soon produces an undesirable effect upon them, causing them to rot also.

This is a condition that obtains among living, breathing human beings as well as in the vegetable kingdom, and it is very questionable whether it is the proper thing to turn criminals free and extend their contaminating influence.

There is one marked circumstance on record where the just was condemned and the guilty party let go free. This instance was the crucifiction of Jesus of Nazareth, and the turning out of Barabbas, the robber by the Jews.

Palastine, the home of the Jews became overrun with robbers, and the nation who chose to live with the unjust rather than the just, have wandered for centuries in strange lands, a distinct people without a country. They received what they asked for, but were they wise in making their choice?

The following comment is from the Portland Telegram in regard to the pardoning of Neely and Rathbone by the Cuban authorities:

Cuba made a bad mistake in the very beginning of its career. If it makes any more of the same nature it will deserve to sink, nationally, "unwept," unhonored and unsung."

One of the first things Cuba did was to grant an amnesty or pardon to all criminals, theives and scoundrels hailing from the United States Among these were Neeley and Rathbone, who stole large amounts from the Cuban postal funds. Cuba did this, apparently, to propitiate or please the United States Government. But have we descended to this—that to gain the favor of the newest and weakest of nations we ask, as the first favor, that theives be pardoned? Who asked it? and why? Perhaps Hanna; we can understand that; but where was Roosevelt and Root and Wood and the rest? The releasement of Neely and Rathbone from punishment is an international scandal. Cuba really insulted the United States, though innocently and unintentionally, by pardoning these thieves. Yet Cuba is not to blame; she knew that our most persistent and prominent Senators and politicians demanded freedom for these audacious criminals.

The world looks on; what does it say? "The great American Government's chief business is, apparently, to protect and gain the freedom of rascals, swindlers and theives." And it looks that way. The pardon of these thieving pets of prominent politicians would put Robin Hood to the blush, if he were alive. He would have scorned to take money in the way they did.

But we are more "civilized" than he was.

Breaks All Records.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 28.—All weather records in Central Illinois, are being broken this year. Rain has fallen steadily for 24 hours, approaching a cloudburst in extent at times, At intervals last night snow fell, while the temperature dropped to 45 degrees. But for the rain there would have been frost. Excess of moisture this summer has given all classes of crops a serious backset,

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similiar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Boers and Filipinos.

Lord Kitchner appears to have political as well as military talents. He welcomed the surrendering Boers not only as "fellow subjects," but as "fellow citizens," This is unfortunately, more than we can do, or rather more than we will do, in the case of the Filipinos. England had a harder tussle in conquering the Boers than we have had or will have in conquering the Filipinos; but the British now have citizens, "fellow citizens," as well as fellow subjects; but what have we got? Neither subjects nor citizens. The Supreme Court doesn't know; the Prssident doesn't know: Congress doesn't know; even Senator Spooner, who is supposed to know everything, doesn't know. Possibly the only man who knows is Senator Beveridge, and the American people are considerably doubtful yet about that vacuous and voluminous oratorical piece of machinery.

Why not leave the whole question to the egg walker, Senator Allison? Let him arise in his tremendous Iowan dignity, as a man who never ventured near a danger line in his long life, and say "Mr. President, Gentlemen, Men and Brethren: The Filipinos are not citizens, neither subjects; this is clear; you see it. It is a necessity that we should treat them thus and so. The Philippine question is thus easy; is so resolved. By and large, that is all there is of it (two more eggs, please). Now everybody surely is completely satisfied. Smile, gentlemen, with me." (Great applause.)—Portland Telegram.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work: The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Right Shall Rule.

Short is the triumph of evil,
Long is the reign of right;
The men who win by the aid of sin,
The nation that rules by might,
The party that lives by corruption,
The trickster, the knave, the thief,
May thrive for a time on the fruits of crime,
But their seeming success is brief.
Sneer, if you will, at honor;
Make virtue a theme for jest;
Reflect on the man who strives as he can
To seek and to do the best;
Make goodness a butt for slander,
And offer excuse for vice;
Proclaim the old lie, the corruptionist's cry,
That every man has his price.
Yet know that the truth shall triumph,
That every evil shall find its doom;
That the cause of right, though subdued by might,
Shall break from the strongest tomb;
That wrong though it seems to triumph
Lasts only for a day,
While the cause of truth has eternal youth,
And shall rule o'er the world for aye.

Clippings from the Young Crusader.

An English society is putting up in factories and shops anti-profanity posters and distributing leaflets on the same subject.

Organized effort is being made by representatives of the various churches of St. Louis to secure a Religious building at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1903. There is to be no "mid way" and no open Sunday.

In prohibition Maine, where it is said prohibition "is no good," there were last year behind the prison bars 841 persons, a total of thirteen for every 10,000 people; while in Massachusetts, the best enforced license law state, there were 7,451 prisoners, or thirty three for every 10,000 of population.

Intemperance stands for every thing that is bad. The old story of the sheik comes to mind. He is said to have offered a list of crimes to a young friend and asked him to select the least pernicious. The friend turned away from murder, licentiousness, stealing, and others, and selected drunkenness. Whereupon the old man declared that he had chosen the very thing that would lead him to perpetrate all the rest. Many years ago a New York daily paper, which has never been noted for its advocacy of temparance, asserted that "Rum is the key that opens the door to untold misery and debasement"—and the experience of mankind has established the truthfulness of the remark.

The Best Liniment For Strains.

Mr. F. H. WELLS, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,
